

ASSAULTED BY FOOTPADS AND A SHOULDER BROKEN

John Einsel, the Latest Victim of a Hold-Up, Narrowly Escaped With
His Life.

CLUBBED, ROBBED AND RENDERED HELPLESS

Without a word of warning or the slightest intimation of the impending danger, John Einsel, a resident of Avondale street, was, according to his own story told to a News Review reporter this morning, waylaid and robbed by desperate highwaymen at about 10 o'clock Monday night. Einsel is at his home with a broken shoulder, a badly injured arm and a bruised and lacerated face. When the reporter called at the home he found Mr. Einsel suffering excruciating pain from his injuries, and although the exertion of talking added to his discomfort, he willingly told the story of the affair:

"I was returning home after a visit down town," said he, "and reached a point near the alley that comes into Bradshaw avenue on the south side of the street, just around the corner from Walnut street. As near as I can judge it was very nearly 10 o'clock. I had almost reached the alley when I felt a stinging and violent blow across the shoulder that sent me to the ground and stunned me. I had not the slightest intimation of the attack and did not even see the man or men who struck me. I did not hear their footsteps as they approached. The blow of course was struck from the rear, else I could have seen the men. I don't know how the injuries to the lower part of the arm and to my face were sustained unless it was by falling. I was unconscious after the first blow and when I regained my senses I was lying under the shed on the south side of the street. The blows had sickened as well as stunned me, and it was some time before I could get to my feet. It was with the greatest of difficulty that I could walk and it was 11:30 when I reached my home.

"I had no idea of the real extent of my injuries and thinking that I would soon recover from them I thought it best to suffer through the night rather than call a physician. All day yesterday the pains continued, growing more intense rather than better. Last night I began to realize that I was more severely injured than I had at first thought and called a physician."

The physician was Dr. W. N. Bailey, and finding it necessary to administer an anesthetic to properly set the fractured bones, he called in Dr. Hobbs to assist him. From the nature of the fractures it is evident that they were inflicted with a club or a similar weapon. They are of a very painful nature and will confine him to his home for several weeks.

When asked about the booty secured by the highwaymen Mr. Einsel stated that they did not get more than 65 cents. "I had some small change in a vest pocket," he said, "and it was gone when I reached home. There was $3.50 in a trousers pocket, but for some reason it was not taken."

The spot where Mr. Einsel states the holdup occurred is an ideal one for such a crime. There is a shed that fronts on Bradshaw avenue just before the alley is reached, used for storing cases of ware while they are awaiting shipment. This shed opens directly on the street and offers an excellent ambush in which an assassin or highwayman might lie in wait for his victim. The street is very dark at this point, although there is an electric light at the corner. The sidewalk is very narrow.

Frank Einsel, a son of the injured man, called at police headquarters yesterday afternoon and reported the affair to the authorities.

BEER GLASS THROWN AND MAN KNOCKED DOWN

Saloon Customer Badly Hurt as the Result of an Attack of
Some Enemy.

After indulging in drink until he could scarcely walk, J. R. Chapman, a collector for an installment company, wandered into a saloon on Walnut street yesterday afternoon, and while standing at the bar attempting to consume another glass of the intoxicating beverage, was made the victim of an accident that for a time seemed likely to result most seriously, if not fatally.

When he entered the bar room there were three men standing at the rear of the saloon, and to one of them Chapman is indebted for the injuries received. His face was fronting the bar, and having no idea that there was any one about who wished him personal harm, he was paying no heed to the loungers. This morning, when interviewed, he was loath to talk of the affair, but stated that one of the men without the least warning threw a glass with terrific force, striking the right side of his head and knocking him to the floor. The bartender rushed to his assistance and soon perceived that he had been severely cut, the glass having broken into many pieces and each piece lacerating the flesh. After the blood was washed and the injuries partially dressed he was removed to his boarding house. Mean time the trio made good their escape, and all efforts on the part of Officer Morris last evening to locate them proved futile.

Chapman asserts that he will make no endeavor to have the men arrested.

EXECUTIVE BOARD IN SESSION HERE

N. B. OF O. P. OFFICIALS HOLDING
IMPORTANT CONFERENCE.

Trenton Dunted Ware And the Coming Convention Matters Under Consideration.

The executive board of the National Brotherhood of Operative Potters is in session here today. The eastern members of the board arrived in the city yesterday afternoon and a short session was held, an adjournment being taken until this morning.

The sessions are behind closed doors and from the members of the board nothing could be learned as to the transactions. It is stated that the dunted ware dispute of the eastern sanitary pressers is one of the most important matters up for consideration. The pressers and the manufacturers have so far failed to reach an agreement. The manufacturers have shown very little disposition to treat with their employes as to the dispute, and there has been strong talk of a strike. Such action on the part of the operatives must have the sanction of the executive board in order to secure the co-operation of the Brotherhood. There are several other matters that need attention before the convening of the annual convention at Wheeling next May.

The out-of-town members of the board are: Frank Hutchins, Trenton vice president of the N. B. of O. P.; Henry Hailes, Wheeling; William Braithwaite, Trenton; Charles Fulton, Trenton, and National President A. S. Hughes, National Secretary Thomas J. Duffy, National Treasurer John T. Woods and William Adams, Sr., of this city.

HUSBAND DENIED WIFE'S ALLEGATIONS

Petition of Mrs. Henry E. Zehm, of
This City, for Divorce, Was
Not Granted.

Lisbon, March 4.—(Special)—In the case of Myrtle L. Zehm vs. Henry E. Zehm, both of East Liverpool, divorce was refused. The plaintiff said her husband had accused her of being unchaste and in doing so used vile and indecent language and threatened to kill her. Zehm went on the witness stand against his wife and denied her allegations. He said he had not threatened to kill her, but admitted having charged her with unfaithfulness and having used profane language.

The court thought the evidence insufficient to warrant a divorce and the case was dismissed. W. K. Gaston represented the plaintiff and H. E. Grossman the defendant.

A BIG PURCHASE MADE BY THE NEW RAILWAY

Lisbon, March 4.—(Special)—General Asa W. Jones, John H. Ruhman and J. R. Long, of the Youngstown & Southern Railroad company, are in Lisbon and have just closed options for 1,100 acres of coal land near West Point. This territory is owned by the Beaver company, of Lisbon, which was organized a couple of years ago and purchased the land with the expectation that it would virtually become valuable for its rich coal deposits. The tract is now being used for stock raising and other purposes.
State Mine Inspector E. C. Biddle, of Columbus, is also in the city and made an examination of the territory from a scientific standpoint yesterday as to its coal producing possibilities. It is understood that his report last evening was very favorable.
The Youngstown & Southern company is closing leases all along the route as a preliminary to the construction of the electric line.

TOOK ONE DRINK AND GOT CRAZY

Man Who Gave Officer Mahoney a
Tussle Says His Whisky
Was Doped.

HE BECAME VERY VIOLENT

After He Had Recovered His Senses
He Told a Startling Tale of Having
Been Drugged by Strangers Who
Invited Him to Drink.

Crazed as the result of drinking a quantity of doped whisky, A. W. Mercer, a laborer employed by a local junk dealing concern, created a wild scene on Market street yesterday afternoon when Officer Mahoney placed him under arrest. The officer saw the man staggering down the street and immediately started for him, and when he attempted to escort him to the city jail the temporarily insane man madly clutched at the officer's legs and exerting himself to all the strength he possessed, succeeded in hurling the "pride of the force" to the pavement. Pluckily Mahoney arose and made another attempt, but was again baffled and not until he had scuffled with his charge for another period did he land him behind the bars.

Confinement seemed to have a terrifying effect on the man and until late in the evening he ranted and tore around in the cell, presenting every sign of a raving maniac. During the night the effects of the drug left him and he assumed a condition of quietness, after which a reaction set in and he became violently sick and suffered with chills. Officers heard him crying for help and releasing him from the cell allowed him access to the corridors, which were heated sufficiently to revive him. When arraigned this morning he pleaded guilty to a charge of drunkenness, but avowed that it was not due to an over amount of whisky drunk.

He said that he had about $7 in his pockets and started out to have a little fun, and stopping in a saloon on Second street met a gang of fellows who soon put him out of business. He had only taken one drink over the bar when three men standing around invited him to take a drink from a bottle. He accepted the invitation and states that he remembers no more. He was unable to give a description of the men, his mind being a blank, but charges the trio with robbing him after the dope had "kicked."

Mayor Davidson has had numerous men before him during the past few months who have averred that they had been doped in various resorts, and it is probable that some steps will be taken by the police to run down the guilty parties.

THE RAPID GROWTH OF THE BROTHERHOOD

Shown By the Fact That the East Will
Have a Gain of 23 Convention Delegates.

Trenton, N. J., March 4.—(Special).—The various locals of the National Brotherhood of Operative Potters will elect delegates this week to the next convention of the organization, which will be held in Wheeling, W. Va., the first Monday in May.

The eastern locals will have 41 delegates, a gain of 23 over last year. This shows the great growth of the organization during the past 12 months. There are six additional locals, besides a great increase in membership of the old locals. The past two months have witnessed unusual growth and interest.

As yet there has been no move inaugurated by any of the locals to change the present rate of wages, although committees representing each branch are gathering statistics relating to prices and conditions for the next convention. Meantime, every effort is being put forth to strengthen the organization. All local unions have been called upon to lend their co-operation.

A local union of general ware pressers will be organized tonight by Vice President Hutchins. Sixty-one pressers are to pay their initiation fee.

McKinley Farm Sold.

ELECTORS ARE PUZZLED TO KNOW WHAT TO DO AS REGARDS COUNCILMEN

Attorney General's Decision That the City Must Have But Seven Not Regarded as Final.

Notwithstanding that Attorney General Sheets has rendered a decision as to the number of councilmen that shall be elected by cities in the class of East Liverpool, the number being according to his opinion seven, including the president of council, those of the city interested in municipal affairs think that the problem is a most perplexing one, and as many differ with the attorney general as agree with him.

In last evening's issue of the News Review was published exclusively the latest decision handed down by Mr. Sheets. The account was carefully read throughout the city and the question was the paramount topic of conversation. As the result the candidates for election to the councilmanic body in April and the Republican leaders are much concerned as to what steps are to be taken in holding the election. Scores of cities in the class referred to having nominated eight councilmen, it is the general opinion that no change should be made in the number.

An opinion of the attorney general is generally considered official, but it is not incumbent on a municipality to take it as such. If a disputing city desires it can appeal to the supreme court. A decision of the latter must be adhered to. Whether or not this court will be applied to has not yet been decided, but owing to the fact that the latest view of Mr. Sheets conflicts with others given out from his office, it is thought that there will be no alteration of the ticket.

Divorce Granted

In Leetonia Case

Sensational Allegations Made by Mrs.
Frederick, Wife of a Pennsylvania Conductor.

Lisbon, March 4.—(Special).—The divorce case of Mrs. Barbara La Rue Frederick, of Leetonia, vs. Joseph C. Frederick, a Pennsylvania railroad conductor, was heard in court yesterday afternoon and while the case was not contested by the husband, a large number of witnesses were examined.

The alleged intimacy between Mr. Frederick, the defendant, and Mrs. Levi Groner, of Leetonia, who was named as the corespondent, was of long duration and culminated in a rupture between Mr. and Mrs. Frederick last summer. While the evidence was circumstantial, it seemed to show abundantly that Frederick and Mrs. Groner had been guilty of indiscretion and the court granted the divorce as prayed for, leaving the matter of alimony, at the request of the plaintiff's attorneys, to be arranged between the parties. They were married July 24, 1879, at Washingtonville, and two children, Mary, now aged 20, and Anna, now aged 18, were born to them. The husband was alleged to own personal property to the amount of $2,100, of which $300 is the household furniture and $1,800 in cash, and to have a remunerative salary as a Pennsylvania railway conductor on the Port Wayne road. From these sources Mrs. Frederick asks reasonable alimony.

BETTER EQUIPMENT FOR THE C. & P. ROAD

According to Report a Large Amount of Rolling Stock is to Be Added.

According to reports the Cleveland & Pittsburgh division of the Pennsylvania is to have considerable new equipment this year. The report comes following the news that this company is about to place an order for $24,000,000 worth of new cars and engines. This branch of the system is to receive a large share of the new steel cars on account of the enormous increase in ore handling. A number of new locomotives will be put on the C. & P. division also. So far as could be learned no extensive additions are to be made to the passenger equipment.

When President Cassatt made his trip of inspection over this line last fall he expressed himself to the effect that the development of industries on the line and the extensive improvements planned meant more rolling stock in the near future.

It leads—the News Review.

been decided, but owing to the fact that the latest view of Mr. Sheets conflicts with others given out from his office, it is thought that there will be no alteration of the ticket.

Prominent attorneys and others were interviewed today and they, like the populace in general, are divided on the problem. Some have determined that the president of council is absolutely a distinct portion of the city's executive board, and that he, though elected at large is not included in the three referred to in the code. They further state that he is to be elected, irrespective of the other members of council.

Others contend that he must be elected by council and though he will serve as one of the executive heads in reality he will not be a member, only when there is a tie vote cast by council, at which time he will be vested with power to vote.

The Columbus representative of the News Review was instructed this morning to interview the attorney general, but was unable to find him. From Smith Bennett, special counsel in the attorney general's office, he obtained the following statement: "East Liverpool is entitled to seven councilmen, which does not include the president of council, who is an executive officer. Including the president, council will have eight members."

HOSPITAL WORKERS MUCH ENCOURAGED

Committees Report Excellent Success on Their Plans of Raising Funds.

The different committee of the East Liverpool Hospital Association met last night at the Y. M. C. A. auditorium and made their reports. Each of the several committees reported that it was meeting with success in its efforts to raise funds for the hospital here. Extra efforts will be used from now on and it is confidently expected that the proposed building will be a reality within a year.

It was decided to make arrangements with Rev. Milton Butler Pratt, D. D., of the First M. E. church, to deliver a lecture at the church for the benefit of the hospital fund soon. It was confidently asserted that Dr. Pratt will enter into the plan heartily and the arrangements for the date of the lecture will be decided later.

ing, Elects Officers and Enjoys a Smoker.

The meeting of the East Liverpool Amateur Photo Society was well attended last night. The principal business of the evening was the election of the officers for the coming year, but it was also decided to change the name of the society. It was decided by unanimous vote to change the name of the society to the Photographic Society of East Liverpool. The club will be incorporated under the new name and proposes to increase interest in photographic work. The election of officers resulted as follows: President, William H. Phillips; vice president, J. B. Gotham; secretary-treasurer, M. C. Wright; board of directors, J. A. Nagel, Robert Parker and J. H. Davie. The balance of the evening was devoted to a smoker, which was much enjoyed by the members.

Plans of the Co-Operative Store Promoters Making Excellent Progress.

Henry Schreiber, who was selected as the manager of the co-operative store at the meeting of the directors held Monday evening, held a conference last evening with Messrs. John Reark, Samuel Steele and Richard Herbert, a special committee from the directors, at which he accepted the position. His duties will commence within the next few days as there is much to be done in the way of selecting and purchasing the stock of goods and getting the establishment in readiness for the public.

and it was 11:30 when I reached my home.

"I had no idea of the real extent of my injuries and thinking that I would soon recover from them I thought it best to suffer through the night rather than call a physician. All day yesterday the pains continued, growing more intense rather than better. Last night I began to realize that I was more severely injured than I had at first thought and called a physician."

The directors will meet again at 6 o'clock this evening for the purpose of reaching a decision as to the store location. There are two locations in view, one on Sixth street and the other on East Market. The latter is the more favored, and it can be positively stated that it will be selected, the directors having so decided.

The building is a new one at the intersection of Broadway, Lincoln avenue and the Calcutta road.

The new manager is one of the best known young men in the city and has had years of experience that will fit him for the responsible position. He is now employed at the Murphy grocery establishment on East Fifth street.

Will Discuss New Car Line.

The regular semi-monthly meeting of Trades and Labor council will be held tonight. It is not expected that a great amount of labor business will be brought up at this meeting, but it is understood that the proposition of C. A. Smith to build an electric line to the East End will be discussed at length. Several of the locals have already adopted resolutions heartily endorsing the proposed new road and it will be brought up at tonight's meeting of trades council.

A decision of the latter must be adhered to. Whether or not this court will be applied to has not yet been decided, but owing to the fact that the latest view of Mr. Sheets conflicts with others given out from his office, it is thought that there will be no alteration of the ticket.

Prominent attorneys and others were interviewed today and they, like the populace in general, are divided on the problem. Some have determined that the president of council is absolutely a distinct portion of the city's executive board, and that he, though elected at large is not included in the three referred to in the code. They further state that he is to be elected, irrespective of the other members of council.

Others contend that he must be elected by council and though he will serve as one of the executive heads in reality he will not be a member, only when there is a tie vote cast by council, at which time he will be vested with power to vote.

The Columbus representative of the News Review was instructed this morning to interview the attorney general, but was unable to find him. From Smith Bennett, special counsel in the attorney general's office, he obtained the following statement: "East Liverpool is entitled to seven councilmen, which does not include the president of council, who is an executive officer. Including the president, council will have eight members."

DIVORCE GRANTED IN LEETONIA CASE

Sensational Allegations Made by Mrs. Frederick, Wife of a Pennsylvania Conductor.

Lisbon, March 4.—(Special).—The divorce case of Mrs. Barbara La Rue Frederick, of Leetonia, vs. Joseph C. Frederick, a Pennsylvania railroad conductor, was heard in court yesterday afternoon and while the case was not contested by the husband, a large number of witnesses were examined.

The alleged intimacy between Mr. Frederick, the defendant, and Mrs. Levi Groner, of Leetonia, who was named as the correspondent, was of long duration and culminated in a rupture between Mr. and Mrs. Frederick last summer. While the evidence was circumstantial, it seemed to show abundantly that Frederick and Mrs. Groner had been guilty of indiscretion and the court granted the divorce as prayed for, leaving the matter of alimony, at the request of the plaintiff's attorneys, to be arranged between the parties. They were married July 24, 1879, at Washingtonville, and two children, Mary, now aged 20, and Anna, now aged 18, were born to them. The husband was alleged to own personal property to the amount of $2,100, of which $300 is the household furniture and $1,800 in cash, and to have a remunerative salary as a Pennsylvania railway conductor on the Fort Wayne road. From these sources Mrs. Frederick asks reasonable alimony.

BETTER EQUIPMENT FOR THE C. & P. ROAD

According to Report a Large Amount of Rolling Stock Is to Be Added.

According to reports the Cleveland & Pittsburgh division of the Pennsylvania is to have considerable new equipment this year. The report comes following the news that this company is about to place an order for $24,000,000 worth of new cars and engines. This branch of the system is to receive a large share of the new steel cars on account of the enormous increase in ore handling. A number of new locomotives will be put on the C. & P. division also. So far as could be learned no extensive additions are to be made to the passenger equipment.

When President Cassatt made his trip of inspection over this line last fall he expressed himself to the effect that the development of industries on the line and the extensive improvements planned meant more rolling stock in the near future.

HOSPITAL WORKERS MUCH ENCOURAGED

Committee Report Excellent Success on Their Plans of Raising Funds.

The different committee of the East Liverpool Hospital Association met last night at the Y. M. C. A. auditorium and made their reports. Each of the several committees reported that it was meeting with success in its efforts to raise funds for the hospital here. Extra efforts will be used from now on and it is confidently expected that the proposed building will be a reality within a year.

It was decided to make arrangements with Rev. Milton Butler Pratt, D. D., of the First M. E. church, to deliver a lecture at the church for the benefit of the hospital fund soon. It was confidently asserted that Dr. Pratt will enter into the plan heartily and the arrangements for the date of the lecture will be decided later.

The meeting of the East Liverpool Amateur Photo Society was well attended last night. The principal business of the evening was the election of the officers for the coming year, but it was also decided to change the name of the society. It was decided by unanimous vote to change the name of the society to the Photographic Society of East Liverpool. The club will be incorporated under the new name and proposes to increase interest in photographic work.

The election of officers resulted as follows: President, William H. Phillips; vice president, J. B. Gotham; secretary-treasurer, M. C. Wright; board of directors, J. A. Nagel, Robert Parker and J. H. Davis. The balance of the evening was devoted to a smoker, which was much enjoyed by the members.

ASSAULTED BY FOOTPADS AND A SHOULDER BROKEN

John Einsel, the Latest Victim of a Hold-Up.
Narrowly Escaped With
His Life.

CLUBBED, ROBBED AND RENDERED HELPLESS

Without a word of warning or the slightest intimation of the impending danger, John Einsel, a resident of Avondale street, was, according to his own story told to a News Review reporter this morning, waylaid and robbed by desperate highwaymen at about 10 o'clock Monday night. Einsel is at his home with a broken shoulder, a badly injured arm and a bruised and lacerated face. When the reporter called at the home he found Mr. Einsel suffering excruciating pain from his injuries, and although the exertion of talking added to his discomfort, he willingly told the story of the affair.

"I was returning home after a visit down town," said he, "and reached a point near the alley that comes into Bradshaw avenue on the south side of the street, just around the corner from Walnut street. As near as I can judge it was very nearly 10 o'clock. I had almost reached the alley when I felt a stinging and violent blow across the shoulder that sent me to the ground and stunned me. I had not the slightest intimation of the attack and did not even see the man or men who struck me. I did not hear their foot-steps as they approached. The blow of course was struck from the rear, else I could have seen the men. I don't know how the injuries to the lower part of the arm and to my face were sustained unless it was by falling. I was unconscious after the first blow and when I regained my senses I was lying under the shed on the south side of the street. The blows had sickened as well as stunned me, and it was some time before I could get to my feet. It was with the greatest of difficulty that I could walk

Saleon Customer Badly Hurt as the Result of an Attack of
Some Enemy.

After indulging in drink until he could scarcely walk, J. R. Chapman, a collector for an installment company, wandered into a saloon on Walnut street yesterday afternoon, and while standing at the bar attempting to consume another glass of the intoxicating beverage, was made the victim of an accident that for a time seemed likely to result most seriously, if not fatally.

When he entered the bar room there were three men standing at the rear of the saloon, and to one of them Chapman was indebted for the injuries received. His face was fronting the bar, and having no idea that there was any one about who wished him personal harm, he was paying no heed to the loungers. This morning, when interviewed, he was loath to talk of the affair, but stated that one of the men without the least warning threw a glass with terrific force, striking the right side of his head and knocking him to the floor. The bartender rushed to his assistance and soon perceived that he had been severely cut, the glass having broken into many pieces and each piece lacerating the flesh. After the blood was washed and the injuries partially dressed he was removed to his boarding house. Mean time the trio made good their escape, and all efforts on the part of Officer Morris last evening to locate them proved futile.

Chapman asserts that he will make no endeavor to have the men arrested.

NEW MANAGER ACCEPTS POSITION

Plans of the Co-Operative Store Promoters Making Excellent Progress.

Henry Schreiber, who was selected as the manager of the co-operative store at the meeting of the directors held Monday evening, held a confer-

and it was 11:30 when I reached my home.

"I had no idea of the real extent of my injuries and thinking that I would soon recover from them I thought it best to suffer through the night rather than call a physician. All day yesterday the pains continued, growing more intense rather than better. Last night I began to realize that I was more severely injured than I had at first thought and called a physician."

The physician was Dr. W. N. Bailey, and finding it necessary to administer an anaesthetic to properly set the fractured bones, he called in Dr. Hobbs to assist him. From the nature of the fractures it is evident that they were inflicted with a club or a similar weapon. They are of a very painful nature and will confine him to his home for several weeks.

When asked about the booty secured by the highwaymen Mr. Einsel stated that they did not get more than 65 cents. "I had some small change in a vest pocket," he said, "and it was gone when I reached home. There was $3.50 in a trousers pocket, but for some reason it was not taken."

The spot where Mr. Einsel states the hold-up occurred is an ideal one for such a crime. There is a shed that fronts on Bradshaw avenue just before the alley is reached, used for storing cases of ware while they are awaiting shipment. This shed opens directly on the street and offers an excellent ambush in which an assassin or highwayman might lie in wait for his victim. The street is very dark at this point, although there is an electric light at the corner. The sidewalk is very narrow.

Frank Einsel, a son of the injured man, called at police headquarters yesterday afternoon and reported the affair to the authorities.

ence last evening with Messrs. John Reark, Samuel Steele and Richard Herbert, a special committee from the directors, at which he accepted the position. His duties will commence within the next few days as there is much to be done in the way of selecting and purchasing the stock of goods and getting the establishment in readiness for the public.

The directors will meet again at 6 o'clock this evening for the purpose of reaching a decision as to the store location. There are two locations in view, one on Sixth street and the other on East Market. The latter is the more favored, and it can be positively stated that it will be selected, the directors having so decided. The building is a new one at the intersection of Broadway, Lincoln avenue and the Calcutta road.

The new manager is one of the best known young men in the city and has had years of experience that will fit him for the responsible position. He is now employed at the Murphy grocery establishment on East Fifth street.

Will Discuss New Car Line.

The regular semi-monthly meeting of Trades and Labor council will be held tonight. It is not expected that a great amount of labor business will be brought up at this meeting, but it is understood that the proposition of C. A. Smith to build an electric line to the East End will be discussed at length. Several of the locals have already adopted resolutions heartily endorsing the proposed new road and it will be brought up at tonight's meeting of trades council.

EXECUTIVE BOARD IN SESSION HERE

N. B. OF O. P. OFFICIALS HOLDING
IMPORTANT CONFERENCE.

Trenton Dunted Ware And the Coming Convention Matters Under Consideration.

The executive board of the National Brotherhood of Operative Potters is in session here today. The eastern members of the board arrived in the city yesterday afternoon and a short session was held, an adjournment being taken until this morning.

The sessions are behind closed doors and from the members of the board nothing could be learned as to the transactions. It is stated that the dunted ware dispute of the eastern sanitary pressers is one of the most important matters up for consideration. The pressers and the manufacturers have so far failed to reach an agreement. The manufacturers have shown very little disposition to treat with their employees as to the dispute, and there has been strong talk of a strike. Such action on the part of the operatives must have the sanction of the executive board in order to secure the co-operation of the Brotherhood. There are several other matters that need attention before the convening of the annual convention at Wheeling next May.

The out-of-town members of the board are: Frank Hutchins, Trenton vice president of the N. B. of O. P.; Henry Hailes, Wheeling; William Braithwaite, Trenton; Charles Fulton, Trenton, and National President A. S. Hughes, National Secretary Thomas J. Duffy, National Treasurer John T. Woods and William Adams, Sr., of this city.

HUSBAND DENIED WIFE'S ALLEGATIONS

Petition of Mrs. Henry E. Zehm, of
This City, for Divorce, Was
Not Granted.

Lisbon, March 4.—(Special).—In the case of Myrtle L. Zehm vs. Henry E. Zehm, both of East Liverpool, divorce was refused. The plaintiff said her husband had accused her of being unchaste and in doing so used vile and indecent language and threatened to kill her. Zehm went on the witness stand against his wife and denied her allegations. He said he had not threatened to kill her, but admitted raving charged her with unfaithfulness and having used profane language.

The court thought the evidence insufficient to warrant a divorce and the case was dismissed. W. K. Gaston represented the plaintiff and H. E. Grossman the defendant.

A BIG PURCHASE MADE BY THE NEW RAILWAY

Lisbon, March 4.—(Special).—General Asa W. Jones, John H. Ruhlman and J. R. Long, of the Youngstown & Southern Railroad company, are in Lisbon and have just closed options for 1,100 acres of coal land near West Point. This territory is owned by the Beaver company, of Lisbon, which was organized a couple of years ago and purchased the land with the expectation that it would virtually become valuable for its rich coal deposits. SALINEVILLE MINER FATALLY CRUSHED

CAUGHT BETWEEN MOTOR CAR AND WALL OF COAL.

Car Had to be Thrown From Track
Ere He Could be Released.

Salineville, March 4.—(Special).—One of the worst accidents that has happened in the mines in Salineville for a number of years occurred this morning at the Slope mine as the men were on their way to work on the inside of the mine. David Plunkett, aged about 37, was caught between a heavy motor and the coal and his left side was terribly mangled and crushed.

He saw the motor coming, and ran as fast as he could to reach a hole where the motor could pass him. He failed to reach the place of safety, and the motorman was not paying any attention to the man, when he was caught. He was wedged in such a shape that the men were compelled to use jacks and throw the motor off the track in order to get the man out. As soon as the accident occurred a physician was summoned by the telephone on the outside of the mine, and the man was at once taken to the outside, where he was made as comfortable as possible. A conveyance was called and the injured man taken to his home in the West End. One leg is crushed from the foot to the hip and several ribs are broken. His head is terribly bruised and cut, and it is feared that he is injured internally.

CRAZY MAN CAUGHT NEAR THE RESERVOIR

An Unknown Man Who Was Very Violent Taken Into Custody.

The attention of a number of residents in the vicinity of the Huston farm, on the reservoir hill, was attracted yesterday afternoon by the antics of a man who was running up and down in a field on the farm, shouting loudly. So strange were the man's actions that Mack Anderson, Frank Ivers and George Cowey, who live in the neighborhood, started out to investigate.

As they entered the field the stranger disappeared into the woods and they searched in vain for him. Half an hour later he appeared in the field again. He said he was hunting rabbits. He was armed with a huge club. He was raving mad, and the men took him into custody. The matter was not reported to the police and it was not known what had been done with him.

Recovering Rapidly.

Lisbon, March 4.—(Special).—Judge J. A. Martin is much better today and appears to be recovering rapidly.

TOOK ONE DRINK AND GOT CRAZY

Man Who Gave Officer Mahoney a
Tussle Says His Whisky
Was Doped.

HE BECAME VERY VIOLENT

After He Had Recovered His Senses
He Told a Startling Tale of Having
Been Drugged by Strangers Who
Invited Him to Drink.

Crazed as the result of drinking a quantity of doped whisky, A. W. Mercer, a laborer employed by a local junk dealing concern, created a wild scene on Market street yesterday afternoon when Officer Mahoney placed him under arrest. The officer saw the man staggering down the street and immediately started for him, and when he attempted to escort him to the city jail the temporarily insane man madly clutched at the officer's legs and exerting himself to all the strength he possessed succeeded in hurling the "pride of the force" to the pavement. Pluckily Mahoney arose and made another attempt, but was again baffled and not until he had scuffled with his charge for another period did he land him behind the bars.

Confinement seemed to have a terrifying effect on the man and until late in the evening he ranted and tore around in the cell, presenting every sign of a raving maniac. During the night the effects of the drug left him and he assumed a condition of quietness, after which a reaction set in and he became violently sick and suffered with chills. Officers heard him crying for help and releasing him from the cell allowed him access to the corridors, which were heated sufficiently to revive him. When arraigned this morning he pleaded guilty to a charge of drunkenness, but avowed that it was not due to an over amount of whisky drunk.

He said that he had about $7 in his pockets and started out to have a little fun, and stopping in a saloon on Second street met a gang of fellows who soon put him out of business. He had only taken one drink over the bar when three men standing around invited him to take a drink from a bottle. He accepted the invitation and states that he remembers no more. He was unable to give a description of the men, his mind being a blank, but charges the trio with robbing him after the dope had "kicked."

Mayor Davidson has had numerous men before him during the past few months who have averred that they had been doped in various resorts, and it is probable that some steps will be taken by the police to run down the guilty parties.

THE RAPID GROWTH OF THE BROTHERHOOD

Shown By the Fact That the East Will
Have a Gain of 23 Convention Delegates.

Trenton, N. J., March 4.—(Special).—The various locals of the National Brotherhood of Operative Potters will elect delegates this week to the next convention of the organization, which will be held in Wheeling, W. Va., the first Monday in May.

The eastern locals will have 41 delegates, a gain of 23 over last year. This shows the great growth of the organization during the past 12 months. There are six additional locals, besides a great increase in membership of the old locals. The past two months have witnessed unusual growth and interest.

As yet there has been no move inaugurated by any of the locals to change the present rate of wages, although committees representing each branch are gathering statistics relating to prices and conditions for the next convention. Meantime, every effort is being put forth to strengthen the organization. All local unions have been called upon to lend their co-operation.

A local union of general ware pressers will be organized tonight by Vice President Hutchins. Sixty-one pressers are to pay their initiation fee.

McKinley Farm Sold.

Lisbon, March 4.—A deed has been recorded here whereby Mrs. Ida S. McKinley, of Canton, wife of the late President, transfers to Mrs. Emma Adams, widow of "Farmer Jack" Adams, the McKinley farm, near Minerva, for $10,000.

ELECTORS ARE PUZZLED TO KNOW WHAT TO DO AS REGARDS COUNCILMEN

Attorney General's Decision That the City Must Have But Seven Not Regarded as Final.

Notwithstanding that Attorney General Sheets has rendered a decision as to the number of councilmen that shall be elected by cities in the class of East Liverpool, the number being according to his opinion seven, including the president of council, those of the city interested in municipal affairs think that the problem is a most perplexing one, and as many differ with the attorney general as agree with him.

In last evening's issue of the News Review was published exclusively the latest decision handed down by Mr. Sheets. The account was carefully read throughout the city and the question was the paramount topic of conversation. As the result the candidates for election to the councilmanic body in April and the Republican leaders are much concerned as to what steps are to be taken in holding the election. Scores of cities in the class referred to having nominated eight councilmen, it is the general opinion that no change should be made in the number.

An opinion of the attorney general is generally considered official, but it is not incumbent on a municipality to take it as such. If a disputing city desires it can appeal to the supreme court. A decision of the latter must be adhered to. Whether or not this court will be applied to has not yet been decided.

DIVORCE GRANTED IN LEETONIA CASE

Sensational Allegations Made by Mrs.

WITH THE WORKMEN IN THE CLAY PLANTS

LYNCH IN CHICAGO.

W. C. Lynch, representing the Homer Laughlin China company, of East Liverpool, is at 642 Palmer House with a line of goods manufactured by this concern, says the Glass and Pottery World. Mr. Lynch will remain here until after March 1. He is now on his regular trip and will go as far west as Des Moines, Ia. The exhibit comprises a general line of dinner and toilet ware and in addition a very large line of novelties. Their Diana jardiniere in Royal Bonn and Persian effects, also the Sultan jardiniere in Majolica effects are especially attractive. Their new President jardiniere in Creton is also proving a good seller.

One of the tastiest things shown in Mr. Lynch's entire display is a line of catchalls and floor vases, also library cuspidors in coin gold and ruby. Another new line is the show girls stein sets in Rookwood effects, the mugs of which are finished in the new horn handle and Tiffany silversmith trimmings. They have also designed a new line of spittoons with gold lace border decorated in German china effects. It is needless to say that their King Charles dinner sets are meeting with approval, and, in the language of Mr. Lynch "is a dream." As stated above their entire line will remain on exhibit until after March 1 and will be one of the largest and most complete exhibits during the entire season.

NO. 12'S DELEGATES.

The meeting last evening of Jiggermen's local, No. 12, was, owing to the important business to be transacted, one of the best attended in many months. Delegates to the national convention, to be held at Wheeling next May, and to the Trades and Labor Council, were elected. The convention delegates are: Frank Gratton, Bert Allison, Charles Och, John Darrah and Thomas Leek. Delegates to the trades council are: John Reark, Timothy Hickey and Frank Gratton. Two new members were obligated.

HORTON'S INJURIES.

William Horton, of the glost kiln crew at the Thompson, who fell yesterday from the top of the kiln by the turning of the ladder upon which he was standing, is not so seriously injured as was at first supposed. He sustained a scalp wound, but fortunately there was no fracture of the skull. His hands are cut and he is badly bruised about the body. He is at his home on Sugar street and in a few days will be able to resume his work.

POPULAR SHAPES.

The new Pearl dinner shape of the Burford Bros' plant, placed on the market the first of the year, has proved to be an excellent seller and more orders for it are now on the books than the plant is capable of turning out. The new Defender toilet has also been very popular and is selling well. The plant all around is enjoying a prosperous season.

HAND INJURED.

Tom Goodwin, of the glost kiln crew at D. E. McNicol's, dropped a sagger on his right hand while at work yesterday morning, injuring it so badly that he was compelled to quit work.

A NEW CROWN.

The work of placing a new crown on glost kiln No. 10 at D. E. McNicol's was commenced and will be completed before the end of the week.

NEW LOCALS ORGANIZED

HORSESHOERS, IRON WORKERS AND ELECTRICAL WORKERS.

All Formed Since the First of the Year And Started With a Strong Membership.

East Liverpool has not been standing still in the matter of organized labor and several new locals, affiliated with the American Federation of Labor, have been organized since the first of the year. Nor has the work stopped. There are a number of trades represented in the city where organizations are badly needed and they will be looked after in their turn. The persons engaged in them have the spirit of unionism and will be glad to join any organization that will be recognized by the federation. Charles Kontner, the well known motorman employed on the Calcutta division of the East Liverpool railroad, is the local organizer of the American Federation of Labor and he is a constant and faithful worker in the cause.

Since the first of the year he has reported three new locals and charters have been issued to them. They are: International Association of Horseshoers, International Association of Amalgamated Sheet Iron Workers and the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers. These three locals started their existence with strong memberships considering the number of men employed in the trades in this city, and they have every promise for future usefulness. The men are taking a great interest and the meetings, which are held weekly, are well attended.

The sheet metal workers have elected the following officers: President, Lewis Canehart; vice president, J. Ira Chamberlain; recording and corresponding secretary, Frank Morgan; financial secretary, Thomas Haney; treasurer, Emmet Crites.

The electrical workers, one of the last of the three to be organized, have not as yet selected a full set of officers, but regular meetings are being held and the local is thriving.

The officers of the horseshoers are: President, John Garvey, Wellsville; corresponding and financial secretary, William Smith; recording secretary, E. A. Arnold; treasurer, M. S. Bowers; and sergeant-at-arms, E. A. Alexander.

FOUR YEARS IN PRISON FOR DR. H. N. TEETERS

Steubenville Physician's Sentence in Goodlin Case—Negro Sent Up for Life.

Steubenville, March 4.—Two persons received sentences in court yesterday. In the case of Andrew Anderson, the boy who was convicted of throwing the stone which killed old man Merritt, a question arose as to whether or not Anderson could be sent to the Mansfield reformatory, he being under 16 years of age, and he may be sent to the Boys' Industrial school at Lancaster. Sentence was deferred. Joseph Daniel Scott, who pleaded guilty to second degree murder, was sentenced to the penitentiary for life. Dr. H. Negley Teeters pleaded guilty to performing a criminal operation upon Grace Goodlin, which caused her death. Dr. Teeters was sentenced to four years in the penitentiary. His wife, brother and sister were present. His attorney, P. P. Lewis, made a plea for clemency and Prosecutor Alban recited the facts brought out by the testimony, after which the prisoner received his sentence.

Deal in Philadelphia Gives Rise to Story That Consolidation is Planned.

Rumors of a consolidation in the two big base ball leagues again are going the rounds with the recent sale of the Philadelphia club as one of the foundations for the talk. It is announced in connection with this deal that the new owners do not secure the grounds and stands of the Philadelphia club, a fact which makes the question as to where the team will play rather dubious.

With this fact as a basis, it is surmised that there may be a consolidation of interests in the Quaker City by which the new owners come in equally on the American league property.

A consolidation of interests in Boston is another step that is to be taken in the east, followed by the abandoning of the project of the American league to enter New York.

This would give the eastern circuit five of the best cities in Boston, New York, Brooklyn, Philadelphia and Washington, with another city still to be added.

In the west consolidations at St. Louis and Chicago easily would solve the problem of bringing eight clubs down to six.

It is known that the St. Louis Americans would welcome a consolidation of interests with the Robisons, and on several occasions have expressed themselves in favor of such an arrangement. It is equally well known that the affairs of the St. Louis National league club recently have been investigated, with a view of ascertaining the exact value of the franchise and its accessories. Under these conditions it would not be a hard matter to close a deal of consolidation on extremely short notice.

FOOT BALL PLAYERS FROM THIS CITY

Two Will Be on Morgantown University Team—An Offer to A. W. Stevenson.

From present indications East Liverpool will be well represented at the University of West Virginia during the foot ball season next fall. Several young men of the city have determined to enter the university this fall and two of them are well known and popular young foot ball players, Will Hardy and Frank Moore, both members of last season's West End team. The latter played in most of the games with the East Liverpool club, and both are rated among the best in this section of the state.

The position of assistant coach of the university team, one that carries with it no little emolument in the way of honor, and a good salary has been proffered Alex W. Stevenson, the well-known player of this city, who played on the university team in '94 and '95. It is the custom of the team management to select as coach one of the best players from an eastern college and a university man as assistant. Manager Bowman in compliance with this custom has selected Mr. Stevenson, who has kept in close touch with the athletic affairs of the university since he left Morgantown. He has been called upon on several occasions to assist the boys at his alma mater in several of their hardest contests. He has not as yet either accepted or declined the offer.

Both Hardy and Moore stand an excellent chance for places on the foot ball team should they enter the university for their superiors in the game are very few.

A Massillon Girl's Constancy to a Fiance Accused of Theft.

Canton, March 4.—At the last session of the grand jury Melville Snyder, whose home is in Massillon, but who had been an employee of the Dueber works, was indicted for grand larceny, it being charged that he had been purloining gold and jewels from the shop from day to day.

Snyder confessed and restored a bar of gold and about 3,300 jewels. The gold was secured by taking filings and clippings, the greater part of the metal being secured from the settings of jewels. The gold was worth $107. The jewels were valued at but a few cents each without their settings.

For some time prior to his arrest Snyder had been the accepted sweetheart of Miss Grace Allman, a handsome and popular young woman. Her father is owner of the largest department store in Massillon.

The girl has been devoting herself to Snyder since his arrest. She is trying to secure his release and has made frequent trips to Canton. She makes no secret of the fact that she still intends to marry Snyder.

The case has been called for hearing in Canton. Every effort has been made to have the courts extend leniency. John C. Dueber has expressed his willingness to leave the court use its own judgment in disposing of the case. Miss Allman's sister was recently married to an Italian count.

A dance is to be given by the Ladies of the Golden Eagle at Columbian Park March 4. Admission, 35 cents.

LYNCH IN CHICAGO.

W. C. Lynch, representing the Homer Laughlin China company, of East Liverpool, is at 642 Palmer House with a line of goods manufactured by this concern, says the Glass and Pottery World. Mr. Lynch will remain here until after March 1. He is now on his regular trip and will go as far west as Des Moines, Ia. The exhibit comprises a general line of dinner and toilet ware and in addition a very large line of novelties. Their Diana jardiniere in Royal Bonn and Persian effects, also the Sultan jardiniere in Majolica effects are especially attractive. Their new President jardiniere in Creton is also proving a good seller.

One of the tastiest things shown in Mr. Lynch's entire display is a line of catchalls and floor vases, also library cuspidors in coin gold and ruby. Another new line is the show girls stein sets in Rookwood effects, the mugs of which are finished in the new hound handle and Tiffany silversmith trimmings. They have also designed a new line of spittoons with gold lace border decorated in German china effects. It is needless to say that their King Charles dinner sets are meeting with approval, and, in the language of Mr. Lynch "is a dream." As stated above their entire line will remain on exhibit until after March 1 and will be one of the largest and most complete exhibits during the entire season.

He is at his home on Sugar street and in a few days will be able to resume his work.

The new Pearl dinner shape of the Burford Bros' plant, placed on the market the first of the year, has proved to be an excellent seller and more orders for it are now on the books than the plant is capable of turning out. The new Defender toilet has also been very popular and is selling well. The plant all around is enjoying a prosperous season.

GRIP IS CONTAGIOUS SAYS DR. EDSON

Eminent Physician Tells How One May Avoid Catching the Disease.

Dr. Cyrus Edson, of New York, in discussing the present epidemic of grip, in that city, is quoted as saying: "Grip is contagious, and if the public were fully aware of that fact, many unnecessary infections would be avoided. The grip germ, a spirillum, or bacillus, locates itself principally in mucous membranes of the respiratory tract, and it is an air-borne disease—one acquires it by breathing in the germs. Ample evidence of its contagiousness is found by its passage through a family, a city or a section of the country, traveling along the ordinary lines of travel. It is in this way that it was brought to this country some 15 years ago, coming in steamers from Europe. A great mistake is made by the man who returns to his work too soon after an attack of the grip.

"To avoid catching the grip keep out of the way of people who have it, keep warm and keep your feet dry. Sleep in a well ventilated room, but avoid draughts. If your baby has the grip don't kiss it. If your stenographer has the grip, send her home until she gets well. If your friend has the grip send him flowers and regrets, but don't call on him until he is well. Don't get tired, and, above all, keep warm and dry. When you do get the grip take a laxative, go to bed, and send for a doctor."

AN AIRSHIP TO FLY AT WHEELING FAIR

William L. Tanney Has an Invention to Revolutionize Aerial Travel.

Wheeling, March 4.—William L. Tanney, a local artist, has made arrangements with the West Virginia State Fair association for a permit to sail his air ship on its premises on the island. Tanney has been at work on the machine for the past 16 years, with little degree of success, but recently secured aid from capitalists in the east, and he promises to revolutionize the mode of travel, as he claims to possess a knowledge of aerial flight which will insure the accuracy of his scheme.

Tanney has arranged to transform his ballast into gas as the machine sails, something that even Santos Dumont has failed to do. He will compete for the prize of $200,000 offered by the directors of the St. Louis exposition for the best exhibition and most successful effort of an air ship.

One of the tastiest things shown in Mr. Lynch's entire display is a line of catchalls and floor vases, also library cuspids in coin gold and ruby. Another new line is the show girls stein sets in Rookwood effects, the mugs of which are finished in the new horn handle and Tiffany silversmith trimmings. They have also designed a new line of spittoons with gold lace border decorated in German china effects. It is needless to say that their King Charles dinner sets are meeting with approval, and in the language of Mr. Lynch "is a dream." As stated above their entire line will remain on exhibit until after March 1 and will be one of the largest and most complete exhibits during the entire season.

NO. 12'S DELEGATES.

The meeting last evening of Jiggermen's local, No. 12, was, owing to the important business to be transacted, one of the best attended in many months. Delegates to the national convention, to be held at Wheeling next May, and to the Trades and Labor Council, were elected. The convention delegates are: Frank Gratton, Bert Allison, Charles Och, John Darrah and Thomas Leek. Delegates to the trades council are: John Reark, Timothy Hickey and Frank Gratton. Two new members were obligated.

HORTON'S INJURIES.

William Horton, of the glass kiln crew at the Thompson, who fell yesterday from the top of the kiln by the turning of the ladder upon which he was standing, is not so seriously injured as was at first supposed. He sustained a scalp wound, but fortunately there was no fracture of the skull. His hands are cut and he is badly bruised about the body. He is at his home on Sugar street and in a few days will be able to resume his work.

POPULAR SHAPES.

The new Pearl dinner shape of the Burford Bros. plant, placed on the market the first of the year, has proved to be an excellent seller and more orders for it are now on the books than the plant is capable of turning out. The new Defender toilet has also been very popular and is selling well. The plant all around is enjoying a prosperous season.

HAND INJURED.

Tom Goodwin, of the glass kiln crew at D. E. McNicol's, dropped a sagger on his right hand while at work yesterday morning, injuring it so badly that he was compelled to quit work.

A NEW CROWN.

The work of placing a new crown on glass kiln No. 10 at D. E. McNicol's was commenced and will be completed before the end of the week.

NEW LOCALS ORGANIZED

HORSESHOERS, IRON WORKERS AND ELECTRICAL WORKERS.

All Formed Since the First of the Year And Started With a Strong Membership.

East Liverpool has not been standing still in the matter of organized labor and several new locals, affiliated with the American Federation of Labor, have been organized since the first of the year. Nor has the work stopped. There are a number of trades represented in the city where organizations are badly needed and they will be looked after in their turn. The persons engaged in them have the spirit of unionism and will be glad to join any organization that will be recognized by the federation. Charles Kontner, the well known motorman employed on the Calcutta division of the East Liverpool railroad, is the local organizer of the American Federation of Labor and he is a constant and faithful worker in the cause.

Since the first of the year he has reported three new locals and charters have been issued to them. They are: International Association of Horseshoers, International Association of Amalgamated Sheet Iron Workers and the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers. These three locals started their existence with strong memberships considering the number of men employed in the trades in this city, and they have every promise for future usefulness. The men are taking a great interest and the meetings, which are held weekly, are well attended.

The sheet metal workers have elected the following officers: President, Lewis Canchar; vice president, J. Ira Chamberlain; recording and corresponding secretary, Frank Morgan; financial secretary, Thomas Haney; treasurer, Emmet Crites.

The electrical workers, one of the last of the three to be organized, have not as yet selected a full set of officers, but regular meetings are being held and the local is thriving.

The officers of the horseshoers are: President, John Garvey, Wellsville; corresponding and financial secretary, William Smith; recording secretary, E. A. Arnold; treasurer, M. S. Bowers; and sergeant-at-arms, E. A. Alexander.

Steubenville, March 4.—Two persons received sentences in court yesterday. In the case of Andrew Anderson, the boy who was convicted of throwing the stone which killed old man Merritt, a question arose as to whether or not Anderson could be sent to the Mansfield reformatory, he being under 16 years of age, and he may be sent to the Boys' Industrial school at Lancaster. Sentence was deferred. Joseph Daniel Scott, who pleaded guilty to second degree murder, was sentenced to the penitentiary for life.

Deal in Philadelphia Gives Rise to Story That Consolidation Is Planned.

Rumors of a consolidation in the two big base ball leagues again are going the rounds with the recent sale of the Philadelphia club as one of the foundations for the talk. It is announced in connection with this deal that the new owners do not secure the grounds and stands of the Philadelphia club, a fact which makes the question as to where the team will play rather dubious.

With this fact as a basis, it is surmised that there may be a consolidation of interests in the Quaker City by which the new owners come in equally on the American league property.

A consolidation of interests in Boston is another step that is to be taken in the east, followed by the abandoning of the project of the American league to enter New York.

This would give the eastern circuit five of the best cities in Boston, New York, Brooklyn, Philadelphia and Washington, with another city still to be added.

In the west consolidations at St. Louis and Chicago easily would solve the problem of bringing eight clubs down to six.

It is known that the St. Louis Americans would welcome a consolidation of interests with the Robisons, and on several occasions have expressed themselves in favor of such an arrangement. It is equally well known that the affairs of the St. Louis National league club recently have been investigated, with a view of ascertaining the exact value of the franchise and its accessories. Under these conditions it would not be a hard matter to close a deal of consolidation on extremely short notice.

FOOT BALL PLAYERS FROM THIS CITY

Two Will Be on Morgantown University Team—An Offer to A. W. Stevenson.

From present indications East Liverpool will be well represented at the University of West Virginia during the foot ball season next fall. Several young men of the city have determined to enter the university this fall and two of them are well known and popular young foot ball players, Will Hardy and Frank Moore, both members of last season's West End team. The latter played in most of the games with the East Liverpool club, and both are rated among the best in this section of the state.

The position of assistant coach of the university team, one that carries with it no little emolument in the way of honor, and a good salary has been proffered Alex W. Stevenson, the well-known player of this city, who played on the university team in '94 and '95. It is the custom of the team management to select as coach one of the best players from an eastern college and a university man as assistant.

Manager Bowman in compliance with this custom has selected Mr. Stevenson, who has kept in close touch with the athletic affairs of the university since he left Morgantown. He has been called upon on several occasions to assist the boys at his alma mater in several of their hardest contests. He has not as yet either accepted or declined the offer.

Both Hardy and Moore stand an excellent chance for places on the foot ball team should they enter the university for their superiors in the game are very few.

A Massillon Girl's Constancy to a Fiance Accused of Theft.

Canton, March 4.—At the last session of the grand jury Melville Snyder, whose home is in Massillon, but who had been an employee of the Dueber works, was indicted for grand larceny, it being charged that he had been purloining gold and jewels from the shop from day to day.

Snyder confessed and restored a bar of gold and about 3,300 jewels. The gold was secured by taking filings and clippings, the greater part of the metal being secured from the settings of jewels. The gold was worth $107. The jewels were valued at but a few cents each without their settings.

For some time prior to his arrest Snyder had been the accepted sweetheart of Miss Grace Allman, a handsome and popular young woman. Her father is owner of the largest department store in Massillon.

The girl has been devoting herself to Snyder since his arrest. She is trying to secure his release and has made frequent trips to Canton. She makes no secret of the fact that she still intends to marry Snyder.

The case has been called for hearing in Canton. Every effort has been made to have the courts extend leniency. John C. Dueber has expressed his willingness to leave the court use its own judgment in disposing of the case. Miss Allman's sister was recently married to an Italian count.

AN AIRSHIP TO FLY AT WHEELING FAIR

William L. Tanney Has an Invention to Revolutionize Aerial Travel.

Wheeling, March 4.—William L. Tanney, a local artist, has made arrangements with the West Virginia State Fair association for a permit to sail his air ship on its premises on the island. Tanney has been at work on the machine for the past 16 years, with little degree of success, but recently he secured aid from capitalists in the east, and he promises to revolutionize the mode of travel, as he claims to possess a knowledge of aerial flight which will insure the accuracy of his scheme.

Tanney has arranged to transform his ballast into gas as the machine sails, something that even Santos Dumont has failed to do. He will compete for the prize of $200,000 offered by the directors of the St. Louis exposition for the best exhibition and most successful effort of an air ship.

CRIP IS CONTAGIOUS SAYS DR. EDSON

Eminent Physician Tells How One May Avoid Catching the Disease.

Dr. Cyrus Edson, of New York, in discussing the present epidemic of grip, in that city, is quoted as saying: "Grip is contagious, and if the public were fully aware of that fact, many unnecessary infections would be avoided. The grip germ, a spirillum, or bacillus, locates itself principally in mucous membranes of the respiratory tract, and it is an air-borne disease—one acquires it by breathing in the germs. Ample evidence of its contagiousness is found by its passage through a family, a city or a section of the country, traveling along the ordinary lines of travel. It is in this way that it was brought to this country some 15 years ago, coming in steamers from Europe. A great mistake is made by the man who returns to his work too soon after an attack of the grip.

"To avoid catching the grip keep out of the way of people who have it, keep warm and keep your feet dry. Sleep in a well ventilated room, but avoid draughts. If your baby has the grip don't kiss it. If your stenographer has the grip, send her home until she gets well. If your friend has the grip send him flowers and regrets, but don't call on him until he is well. Don't get tired, and, above all, keep warm and dry. When you do get the grip take a laxative, go to bed, and send for a doctor."

EAST END

VISIT BY OFFICERS

Of the Pennsylvania P. H. C. to Eureka Circle—A Most Enjoyable Affair.

The meeting last night of Eureka circle, P. H. C., was an exceptionally fine one. Eight new members were obligated into the circle. A number of the Pennsylvania state officers were present and favored Eureka circle with some splendid speeches. The following officers spoke: Frank Fuehr, grand president; Samuel J. Gordon, state treasurer; and Arthur D. Gue, state secretary.

The comic speech of Edward Dietz was thoroughly enjoyed. After the entertainment was over, members present to the number of 150 partook of an excellent oyster supper.

In connection with the visit of the Pennsylvania state officers to Eureka circle was the making of definite arrangements for the holding of a monster picnic on June 13 at Rock Springs Park, and will be joined in by circles of the P. H. C. from all parts of Ohio, Pennsylvania and West Virginia. The supreme officers of the order intend making this one of the largest excursions which has ever been given by the order.

ABOUT TO START

Sewer Pipe Plant Will Resume Next Week With Prospect of a Steady Run.

The plant of the East End sewer pipe works will start in all departments next week, after a thorough overhauling of the kilns and a general cleaning up of the yards. Coal has been coming in in great quantities, which guarantees the running of the plant, with fewer shut downs than in the past.

The most important of the repairs now being made consist of a thorough overhauling of the steam-heating apparatus. The freight bargo, which has existed, and had caused a shortage of cars at the plant, shows signs of improvement, and with plenty of orders on hand, the plant on resumption of operations will run steadily.

LIKE FINDING MONEY

B. C. Ansley Offers Popular Medicine at Half Price.

B. C. Ansley, the popular druggist, is making an offer that is just like finding money, for he is selling a regular 50 cent bottle of Dr. Howard's celebrated specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia at half price. In addition to this large discount he agrees to return the money to any purchaser whom the specific does not cure.

It is quite unusual to be able to buy fifty-cent pieces for a quarter, but that is what this offer really means, for it is only recently, through the solicitation of Druggist B. C. Ansley that this medicine can be bought for less than 50 cents. He urged the proprietors to allow him to sell it at this reduced price for a little while, agreeing to sell a certain amount. The result has justified his good judgment, for the sale has been something remarkable.

Any one who suffers with headache, dyspepsia, dizziness, sour stomach, specks before the eyes, or any liver trouble, should take advantage of this opportunity, for Dr. Howard's specific will cure all these troubles. But if by any chance it should not, B. C. Ansley will return your money.

RAMSEY ASKED FOR MORE TIME

And Utilizes It to Good Advantage. Writ Has Not Been Served on Several Leaders and Strike May Yet Be Ordered Without Violation of Order.

St. Louis, March 4.—An injunction granted by Judge Adams, of the United States district court, prevented the culmination yesterday of the threatened strike of the 1,100 firemen and trainmen of the Wabash railroad for higher wages. As the result of the poll during the past week among the employees over the question of striking in case President Ramsey ultimately should refuse to grant the demanded wage concessions on the Wabash east of the Mississippi river the engineers and conductors refused to participate in a strike, but the firemen and trainmen favored it emphatically. Their committees Monday notified President Ramsey that he would be given until noon yesterday to grant their demands. If by that time he still refused a strike would be immediately called.

President Ramsey yesterday afternoon requested a little more time and the two committees granted him until 5 o'clock to make final reply. Before the allotted time had expired President Ramsey had secured a restraining order from the court and it had been served on all the officials of all the orders and members of the grievance committees. The injunction was a most sweeping instrument and effectually blocked any strike proceedings. In part it reads:

"We, therefore, do strictly command you, until the further order of the court, absolutely to desist and refrain from in any way or manner ordering, coercing, persuading, inducing or otherwise causing, directly or indirectly, the employees of the said Wabash Railway company to strike or quit the service of said company."

The injunction, while temporary, may be dissolved at any time by those named in it appearing in court and showing cause. Chiefs Shanahan and Lee called a meeting for a conference on the new phase of the situation.

Several of the leaders named in the injunction had not been served with copies of the writ when the conference began. It was the plan for these men to avoid being served, so that they might order the strike if necessary without violating the federal court's order.

Grand Chief P. M. Arthur, of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, said when asked about the situation: "It is a fact that there are a number of conductors in the trainmen's organization and a number of engineers in the firemen's organization, and it is fair to presume that the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, in case of a strike, will give the firemen and trainmen at least moral support."

President Ramsey at 5 o'clock handed to the committees representing the Brotherhood of Trainmen and Firemen his reply to their demands, in which he practically refuses. This information the labor renders telegraphed to the members of the respective orders throughout the system. They would not say what their next move would be. Later he said: "I have not heard anything from the men who proposed striking. I do not believe there will be any strike."

ENTHUSIASTIC OVER EXPOSITION

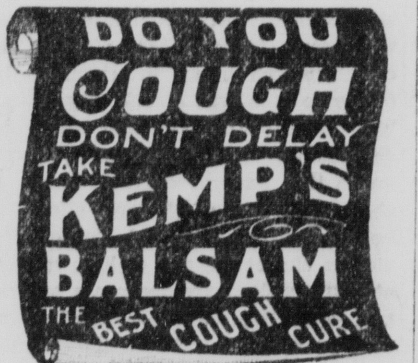

President of St. Louis Fair Warmly Welcomed in France—Banquet Arranged for on His Return.

Paris, March 4.—President Francis of the St. Louis exposition, started for Madrid yesterday, after devoting the morning to a further exchange of visits. He also went to the chamber of commerce and to the bourse.

Shortly before the day's operations began Mr. Francis held an informal levee, several hundred leaders of the financial and commercial world crowding around him, while M. LaGrave, the commissioner of France to the exposition, presented the leading officials of the various chambers. All those present had something good to say of the exposition.

Mr. Francis made a brief speech, saying that expositions serve the useful purposes of binding nations together, promoting peace and advancing the achievement of general disarmament.

A banquet is being arranged for when Mr. Francis returns here Saturday. About 500 representative French officials and the members of the American chamber of commerce will be present.

St. Louis, March 4.—An injunction granted by Judge Adams, of the United States district court, prevented the culmination yesterday of the threatened strike of the 1,100 firemen and trainmen of the Wabash railroad for higher wages. As the result of the injunction the question of striking in case President Ramsey ultimately should refuse to grant the demanded wage concessions on the Wabash east of the Mississippi river the engineers and conductors refused to participate in a strike, but the firemen and trainmen favored it emphatically. President Ramsey yesterday afternoon requested a little more time and the two committees granted him until 5 o'clock to make final reply. Early indiscretions, later excesses, exposure to contagious diseases all helped to break down my system. When I commenced to realize my condition I was almost frantic. Doctor after doctor treated me but only gave me relief—not a cure. Hot Springs helped me, but did not cure me. The symptoms always returned. Mercury and Potash drove the poison into my system instead of driving it out. I bless the day your New Method Treatment was recommended to me. INJUNCTION SERVED.

Instrument Effectually Blocks
Any Strike Proceedings.

RAMSEY ASKED FOR MORE TIME

And Utilizes It to Good Advantage.
Writ Has Not Been Served on Several Leaders and Strike May Yet Be Ordered Without Violation of Order.

St. Louis, March 4.—An injunction granted by Judge Adams, of the United States district court, prevented the culmination yesterday of the threatened strike of the 1,100 firemen and trainmen of the Wabash railroad for higher wages. As the result of the poll during the past week among the employees over the question of striking in case President Ramsey ultimately should refuse to grant the demanded wage concessions on the Wabash east of the Mississippi river the engineers and conductors refused to participate in a strike, but the firemen and trainmen favored it emphatically. Their committees Monday notified President Ramsey that he would be given until noon yesterday to grant their demands. If by that time he still refused a strike would be immediately called.

President Ramsey yesterday afternoon requested a little more time and the two committees granted him until 5 o'clock to make final reply. Before the allotted time had expired President Ramsey had secured a restraining order from the court and it had been served on all the officials of all the orders and members of the grievance committees. The injunction was a most sweeping instrument and effectually blocked any strike proceedings. In part it reads:

"We, therefore, do strictly command you, until the further order of the court, absolutely to desist and refrain from in any way or manner ordering, coercing, persuading, inducing or otherwise causing, directly or indirectly, the employees of the said Wabash Railway company to strike or quit the service of said company."

The injunction, while temporary, may be dissolved at any time by those named in it appearing in court and showing cause. Chiefs Shanahan and Lee called a meeting for a conference on the new phase of the situation.

Several of the leaders named in the injunction had not been served with copies of the writ when the conference began. It was the plan for these men to avoid being served, so that they might order the strike if necessary without violating the federal court's order.

Grand Chief P. M. Arthur, of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, said when asked about the situation:
"It is a fact that there are a number of conductors in the trainmen's organization and a number of engineers in the firemen's organization, and it is fair to presume that the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, in case of a strike, will give the firemen and trainmen at least moral support."

President Ramsey at 5 o'clock handed to the committees representing the Brotherhood of Trainmen and Firemen his reply to their demands, in which he practically refuses. This information the labor leaders telegraphed to the members of the respective orders throughout the system. They would not say what their next move would be. Later he said: "I have not heard anything from the men who proposed striking. I do not believe there will be any strike."

ENTHUSIASTIC OVER EXPOSITION

President of St. Louis Fair Warmly
Welcomed in France—Banquet
Arranged for on His Return.

Paris, March 4.—President Francis of the St. Louis exposition, started for Madrid yesterday, after devoting the morning to a further exchange of visits. He also went to the chamber of commerce and to the bourse.

Shortly before the day's operations legan Mr. Francis held an informal levee, several hundred leaders of the financial and commercial world crowding around him, while M. LaGrave, the commissioner of France to the exposition, presented the leading officials of the various chambers. All those present had something good to say of the exposition.

Mr. Francis made a brief speech, saying that expositions serve the usual purposes of binding nations together, promoting peace and advancing the achievement of general disarmament.

A banquet is being arranged for when Mr. Francis returns here Saturday. About 500 representative French officials and the members of the American chamber of commerce will be present.

and possibly larger than both combined. If this statement does injustice to our contemporaries, we will willingly acknowledge our error, if it shall be found that we are wrong after a committee of business men shall have investigated their circulation fully and attested the result of its findings. As we have repeatedly declared, the News Review courts the have investigated their circulation Can its contemporaries, who never give detailed circulation statements, either sworn or unsworn, say as much for themselves?

In American railway enterprise there is something to boast of and something to horrify. Hardly a day passes that a railroad "accident" is not recorded, with frightful loss of life. Certainly no day passes that several persons are not killed by trains somewhere in the country. Yet the statement, easy of verification, is put forward that upon the English railroads, the most crowded in the world, no person has been killed in the past 15 months. Contrast this record with the statistics furnished by the interstate commerce commission showing that in three months ending September 30, 1902, 263 persons were killed and 2,163 injured in railroad disasters. The list would be much greater if it included tramps and trespassers and the numerous victims of the unguarded crossing. English conservatism is sometimes ridiculed, but there is a conservatism that is to be admired. It regards human life as sacred and not cheap, and takes every precaution to prevent needless sacrifice of it. Thousands fall victims every year to American recklessness. It is absurd to say that America has not the ability to make its railroads as safe as those of England. We have astonished the world by our achievements in railroading. It is not ability or ingenuity that we lack, but caution. Until that trait is developed in our people and legislation and public sentiment shaped in accordance, the ruthless and pitiful slaughter will continue.

Can nothing be done to make the streets of East Liverpool safe to those who travel them after night? The case reported today, in which an offensive man was struck down by a blow from behind and had his shoulder broken, is one of the most outrageous that has yet come to light. It shows plainly that whatever effort has been put forth to rid the city of vicious characters and of highwaymen almost murderously desperate has not succeeded. More effort—redoubled and continuous—is needed. The capture and conviction of even one of the footpads that are apparently now so numerous in this city would have a wholesome effect and serve as a useful warning to their brethren. It would also relieve the police from much of the blame, whether just or unjust, which is showered upon them. Police and public should co-operate to rid the town of a menace that is likely to develop into a standing disgrace. There is plenty of work ahead in this line for the ice-coming administration. If it can free the city from burglars, footpads and other characters for whom prison doors yawn, it can win golden opinions and lasting gratitude.

The United States Steel corporation is about to expend in and around Pittsburgh a large portion of its $36,000,000 set aside for improvements. The Iron City will need a few more trunk lines and an improved Ohio more than ever when that amount has been expended to expand its industries.

Again a code puzzle! Whether this city shall have seven or eight councilmen may not matter much, but the city would like to have a legally organized legislative body. The only obstacle to securing one appears to be to find out what the law is.

OBITUARY

Thomas J. V. Kennedy.

Lisbon, March 4.—(Special)—Thomas J. V. Kennedy died suddenly at his home on Washington street in this town yesterday. He was sitting in the house with his wife about noon and was apparently in his usual health, when she left the room for a moment and returning found him dead in his chair. The deceased had been a sufferer from heart trouble for many years. Mr. Kennedy was born in Pittsburg November 24, 1836, and has been a resident of Lisbon since 1867. He was first married in 1868, to Mrs. Robert Kennedy, who was the widow of his cousin and a daughter of Mrs. Henry Hephner, of Lisbon. His wife died in 1870 and he was again married to Mrs. Mary Jane Abrams, who survives him.

He had no children. He was a member of the M. E. church, from which church funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock, the pastor, Rev. J. A. Ulman, officiating. Burial in Lisbon cemetery.

Wilmer O. Eells.

Wilmer O. Eells died at 11 o'clock this morning at the home of his uncle, Captain J. A. Myers, 131 Fifth street, after an illness of several weeks from catarrhal fever. The arrangements for the funeral have not been made, but the body will be taken to his home in Lisbon, where services will be held and the internment made. He was a son of Robert Eells, of Lisbon, and had been a resident of this city for a year, during which time he was employed at the Vodyre pottery as an invoice clerk. He was very popular with his associates and well liked by all who knew him. Besides the father, four sisters and one brother survive him. They are: Mrs. N. T. Nace, of Lisbon; Mrs. C. A. Jeffers, of Los Angeles, Cal.; and Emma, Lena and Bert, of Lisbon. Members of the family reached here this morning from Lisbon.

B. F. Brady.

The body of B. F. Brady is expected to arrive in Martin's Ferry this afternoon from California. Mr. Brady was one of the most prominent residents of Martin's Ferry and several months ago went to California for the benefit of his health. His residence there did not improve the condition of his health and last Tuesday he died. He was about 48 years of age and a cousin of Mrs. Mary Chambers, of the East End. The remains were shipped east as soon as arrangements could be completed and they will reach Martin's Ferry today. The funeral arrangements have not been completed, but it is expected that it will be held tomorrow afternoon. Several relatives from here will attend the funeral services.

Rain Does Not Dampen Enthusiasm of Populace—St. Peter's Crowded With Sixty-Five Thousand Pilgrims. Scene a Brilliant One.

Rome, March 4.—The twenty-fifth anniversary of the enthronement of Pope Leo was celebrated yesterday in a torrential downpour of rain. Sixty-five thousand pilgrims and other visitors found standing room inside St. Peter's, while the tribunes were filled with one of the most notable crowds Rome has seen in many years. The interior of the cathedral presented a richly brilliant spectacle. The state procession entered from the vatican in the usual order, silver trumpets pealing a salute to them. There was in the procession the largest number of cardinals seen at one time in a quarter of a century.

As the pope, borne aloft, was brought in, his white robes swaying amid the waving of peacock fans, the crowd burst forth in a deafening shout. The service consisted of a high pontifical mass and a Te Deum. Forty cardinals and 315 bishops, representing the whole world, were present at the celebration. His holiness looked better than he has for a fortnight past, though his face was pale and his voice hoarse.

Though the pope showed few signs of fatigue during the public ceremony, when he regained his apartment he was rather alarmingly prostrated.

Dr. Lippont, his holiness' physician, feared his patient might lose consciousness, and accordingly insisted that he should go to bed at once. As he was being assisted, the pope said: "Such ceremonies are uplifting, but I am glad they are not daily occurrences."

Celebration in New York.

New York, March 4.—The completion of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the reign of Pope Leo XIII was observed at St. Patrick's cathedral yesterday with a solemn pontifical mass of thanksgiving, celebrated by Archbishop Falconio, apostolic delegate to the United States. Mgr. Falconio was assisted by Mgr. Mooney, vicar general, and other priests, while Archbishop Farley, Archbishop-elect Quigley, of Chicago, six bishops and other church dignitaries were grouped at either side of the altar. The musical portion consisted of Haydn's imperial mass, sung in its entirety by the choir, accompanied by orchestra and organ. The Rev. Thomas J. Campbell, the famous Jesuit orator, delivered the sermon, a eulogy of Pope Leo XIII.

Ohio Postmasters. Washington, March 4.—The following postmasters for Ohio were appointed yesterday: E. J. Lewis, Girard; G. B. Alaback, East Palestine; M. L. Thompson, Georgetown; R. B. Day, Bluffton; J. E. Hall, Bucyrus; W. A. Pittenger, Dennison; A. M. Richards, Hicksville; J. W. Hull, Millersburg; J. C. Holloway, Montpelier; F. F. Talley, New Richmond; J. J. Roberts, Prospect; H. M. Ashton, Spencerville; W. H. Stout, Uhrichsville; W. T. Orton, West Unity; S. B. Lamer, Johnston; E. C. Jesse, Mineral City; W. S. Needham, Pataskala; J. O. Harris, Utica.

Don't fool with a cold, no one can tell what the end may be. Pneumonia, catarrh, chronic bronchitis and consumption invariably result from neglected colds. Nothing can be compared with Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as a quick cure for colds and influenza, and by its use these diseases may be avoided. For sale by Alvin H. Bulger.

Snow-Bound Passengers Fared Badly.

St. Johns, N. F., March 4.—The passengers of the two express trains which were snow bound in the interior are now reaching the city and relate thrilling stories of their experiences. During their detention in the snow drifts they were reduced to two meals daily, consisting of cake, hard biscuit and a mug of tea. Sometimes they had only one meal. They had no meat for over a week and were reduced to very short commons when the relief reached them. Four women on one of the trains suffered extremely, one being stricken with fainting fits from exhaustion. The second-class passengers had no sleeping accommodation during the whole period they were blocked in the snow.

Relief Department Legal.

Columbus, O., March 4.—The supreme court of Ohio yesterday upheld the validity of the Pennsylvania voluntary relief department. Suit was brought in the circuit court of Franklin county by the attorney general to oust the Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis Railway company from its charter on the ground that in conducting its relief department it was doing an insurance business, in violation of the state laws. It was also claimed that the railroad company compelled its employees to become members of the relief association.

Summoned by Strike Commission.

Scranton, Pa., March 4.—Representatives of the operators and miners have been summoned by the mine strike commission for a conference in Washington, to take place tomorrow at 10 o'clock. All the local lawyers who appeared before the commission at the trial of President Nichols, of the United Mine Workers, will leave today for Washington. The summons from the commission simply states that they want to confer about the question of weighing coal.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 4, 1903.

A merchant of this city, whose attention was called to the sworn statement of circulation published in the News Review, has seen fit to intimate that he does not believe it is true. Caution is commendable, but unwarranted suspicion is foolish. If the gentleman will take the trouble to call at this office, it will be an easy matter for us to set his doubts at rest. The News Review is always glad to welcome its advertising patrons, and open its press room and subscription books to them. This paper is rather proud of its circulation, which averaged over 3,300 copies a day last month, and it has no office secrets to hide. Perhaps, if the suspicious natured and over-cautious gentleman will not believe the sworn statement of those whose standing in the business world is quite as good as his own he will believe the evidence of his own eyes. Let him come himself or send a committee and make the fullest investigation. The News Review will gladly afford him every facility, on any day or any number of days, for ascertaining exactly how many papers are printed in this office and what becomes of them. We have advertising space to sell, and we want our advertisers to assure themselves that they are getting exactly what they pay for. Not only has the News Review the largest circulation of any paper published in East Liverpool, but we honestly believe its circulation is greater by more than 1,000 copies daily than that of either of the other two dailies published in the city.

and possibly larger than both combined. If this statement does injustice to our contemporaries, we will willingly acknowledge our error. If it shall be found that we are wrong after a committee of business men shall have investigated their circulation fully and attested the result of its findings. As we have repeatedly declared, the News Review courts the have investigated their circulation. Can its contemporaries, who never give detailed circulation statements, either sworn or unsworn, say as much for themselves?

In American railway enterprise there is something to boast of and something to horrify. Hardly a day passes that a railroad "accident" is not recorded, with frightful loss of life. Certainly no day passes that several persons are not killed by trains somewhere in the country. Yet the statement, easy of verification, is put forward that upon the English railroads, the most crowded in the world, no person has been killed in the past 15 months. Contrast this record with the statistics furnished by the Interstate Commerce Commission showing that in three months ending September 30, 1902, 263 persons were killed and 2,163 injured in railroad disasters. The list would be much greater if it included tramps and trespassers and the numerous victims of the unguarded crossing. English conservatism is sometimes ridiculed, but there is a conservatism that is to be admired. It regards human life as sacred and not cheap, and takes every precaution to prevent needless sacrifice of it. Thousands fall victims every year to American recklessness. It is absurd to say that America has not the ability to make its railroads as safe as those of England. We have astonished the world by our achievements in railroading. It is not ability or ingenuity that we lack, but caution. Until that trait is developed in our people and legislation and public sentiment shaped in accordance, the ruthless and pitiful slaughter will continue.

Can nothing be done to make the streets of East Liverpool safe to those who travel them after night? The case reported today, in which an inoffensive man was struck down by a blow from behind and had his shoulder broken, is one of the most outrageous that has yet come to light. It shows plainly that whatever effort has been put forth to rid the city of vicious characters and of highwaymen almost murderously desperate has not succeeded. More effort—redoubled and continuous—is needed. The capture and conviction of even one of the footpads that are apparently now so numerous in this city would have a wholesome effect and serve as a useful warning to their brethren. It would also relieve the police from much of the blame, whether just or unjust, which is showered upon them. Police and public should co-operate to rid the town of a menace that is likely to develop into a standing disgrace. There is plenty of work ahead in this line for the incoming administration. If it can free the city from burglars, footpads and other characters for whom prison doors yawn, it can win golden opinions and lasting gratitude.

The United States Steel corporation is about to expend in and around Pittsburgh a large portion of its $36,000,000, set aside for improvements. The Iron City will need a few more trunk lines and an improved Ohio more than ever when that amount has been expended to expand its industries.

Again a code puzzle! Whether this city shall have seven or eight councilmen may not matter much, but the city would like to have a legally organized legislative body. The only obstacle to securing one appears to be to find out what the law is.

OBITUARY

Thomas J. V. Kennedy.

Lisbon, March 4.—(Special)—Thomas J. V. Kennedy died suddenly at his home on Warrington street in this town yesterday. He was sitting in the house with his wife about noon and was apparently in his usual health, when she left the room for a moment and returning found him dead in his chair. The deceased had been a sufferer from heart trouble for many years. Mr. Kennedy was born in Pittsburgh November 24, 1836, and has been a resident of Lisbon since 1867. He was first married in 1868, to Mrs. Robert Kennedy, who was the widow of his cousin and a daughter of Mrs. Henry Hephner, of Lisbon. His wife died in 1879 and he was again married to Mrs. Mary Jane Abrams, who survives him.

He had no children. He was a member of the M. E. church, from which church funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock, the pastor, Rev. J. A. Ulman, officiating. Burial in Lisbon cemetery.

Wilmer O. Ellis died at 11 o'clock this morning at the home of his uncle, Captain J. A. Myers, 131 Fifth street, after an illness of several weeks from catarrhal fever. The arrangements for the funeral have not been made, but the body will be taken to his home in Lisbon, where services will be held and the interment made. He was a son of Robert Ellis, of Lisbon, and had been a resident of this city for a year, during which time he was employed at the Vodyre pottery as an invoice clerk. He was very popular with all his associates and well liked by all who knew him. Besides the father, four sisters and one brother survive him. They are: Mrs. N. T. Nace, of Lisbon; Mrs. C. A. Jeffers, of Los Angeles, Cal.; and Emma, Lena and Burt, of Lisbon. Members of the family reached here this morning from Lisbon.

B. F. Brady.

The body of B. F. Brady is expected to arrive in Martin's Ferry this afternoon from California. Mr. Brady was one of the most prominent residents of Martin's Ferry and several months ago went to California for the benefit of his health. His residence there did not improve the condition of his health and last Tuesday he died. He was about 48 years of age and a cousin of Mrs. Mary Chambers, of the East End. The remains were shipped east as soon as arrangements could be completed and they will reach Martin's Ferry today. The funeral arrangements have not been completed, but it is expected that it will be held tomorrow afternoon. Several relatives from here will attend the funeral services.

We decide to sell 10 pieces for $1.00, or sent prepaid to any address for $1.10.

This music we have in stock and will not include the last copy of any one piece. Our clerks will not be allowed to play over music in this offer. We will, however, allow you to select three pieces that we have in stock, we will give you seven more either instrumental or vocal of our own selection, copyright music. MORE RAILWAY SWITCHES

Are Given Encouragement By the Wellsville City Council — Ferry Franchise Ordinance Passes First Reading.

Much important business was transacted by council last evening. Bills to the amount of $1,953.63 were ordered paid.

A petition was presented by W. E. Butler, of Highland avenue, asking for vacation of a twenty foot alley from Highland avenue to James street, as it acts as a watershed between his property and that of his neighbors.

As such an ordinance cannot be put into effect until after it has been advertised six weeks, a motion was passed that the petition be accepted and the clerk ordered to have the notice published.

Solicitor Boyd stated that Gen. Riley had complained about some land, located back of Coal street, between Fifth and Sixth streets, which the city had appropriated for laying sewers, without settling for it. Mr. Boyd stated that he could arrange a settlement for $200 and was authorized to do so.

The first reading was given an ordinance granting the Smith & McNicol Pottery company the right to lay a railroad track and use it for transportation of freight and passengers, on Sewer street or Lisbon street, thence southwardly on that street on the western side of Coal street from Pine alley to Sixth street.

A similar ordinance was given first reading, granting to C. V. Shoub the right to lay and operate a railroad on Coal street from Sixth to Seventh, to connect with the Smith & McNicol switch.

An ordinance granting Watson S. Johnston, of Congo, a license to operate a ferry across the Ohio river from the landing at Third street, Wellsville, to the opposite shore, for five years, passed first reading. Privilege is granted to operate a cable ferry flat until a steam or gasoline ferry can be constructed.

The city clerk was ordered to notify E. A. Freshwater to finish his paving contract, which was begun last fall, on Maple alley and Liverpool street.

The filling done in Mulberry alley has caused cellars on Front street between Fourth avenue and Fifth streets to be flooded. A petition was presented and Aughinbaugh, Herbert and Shoub appointed to investigate and act.

An ordinance to have an election for the issue of bonds amounting to $20,000 for the installation of a municipal light plant was defeated, after having been passed on two former readings.

board asking council to appropriate $20,000 for the establishment of a new water works plant was also defeated. The account due Rinehart Bros., of East Liverpool, for paving done on a number of streets in Wellsville, was so tangled up and caused such a wrangle that it was decided that the meeting adjourn and a special meeting be called on Friday evening, when the matter will be settled. Before then a committee from council, in company with Mr. Rinehart, is to go all over the work done and report.

LEAVE FLOOD DISTRICT

Some Who Were Driven Off the Lowlands Intend to Remain Away.

The water has receded now sufficiently to permit those who were driven from their homes to move back and repair the damage done by the flood. The residents of Second and Coal streets are busily engaged in removing all evidences of the flood. They find no easy task.

As a result of the flood some of the people who moved away on account of the high water intend to stay permanently in their new location.

Water Trustees Meeting.

The Wellsville water works trustees held a short meeting last evening. Monthly statements were approved. W. G. BANQUET TO OUR AMBASSADOR.

Pilgrim Club Honors Completion of Fourth Year of the United States Representative.

London, March 4.—The Pilgrim club gave a banquet last night to United States Ambassador Choate to celebrate the completion of his fourth year as ambassador to the court of St. James. It was given in the Hyde Park hotel and was a highly elaborate function, over 150 guests being present. Earl Roberts, the chairman, in proposing the toast of "The President of the United States and King Edward VII.," said that Mr. Roosevelt was the president of the most enterprising republic that the world had ever seen, and that King Edward was the sovereign of an empire on which the sun never sets. Their most earnest desire was that America and Great Britain should continue to prosper and flourish and that they might ever continue the same fast friends. The toast was drunk with enthusiasm, the orchestra playing "God Save the King" and "The Star Spangled Banner."

Earl Roberts, in proposing "The Guests of the Evening," dilated on the two nations' growing regard for each other during Mr. Choate's ambassadorship. Mr. Choate responded happily, congratulating the Pilgrim club on its marked and sudden success. Mr. Choate disclaimed for himself the credit of keeping alive the flame of friendship between the two countries. It was the outcome, he said, of the popular will on both sides. Mr. Choate said he was deeply touched when he heard that King Edward last week had voluntarily offered to send Queen Victoria's jubilee presents to the St. Louis exposition, and not only by the offer itself, but by the terms in which the offer was made.

Minister Newell, in proposing the toast of "England and America," created a stir by frankly declaring that any better Anglo-American relations must be based upon interest and not on sympathy. In a characteristically American speech Mr. Newell reduced the after dinner speaking to a practical basis. "In 1898," he said, "I noticed I was a citizen of the best hated nation on the earth. Misery loves company, perhaps that has something to do with the Anglo-American friendship of today. Nevertheless we find in you the man, and we like men. Whatever criticisms or reservations we may have regarding each other we are too big and you are too big to care for them."

Life Sentence for Murdering Husband.

David City, Neb., March 4.—The jury in the Lillie murder case yesterday afternoon brought in a verdict of guilty and fixed the punishment at imprisonment for life. Mrs. Lena M. Lillie, well-to-do, educated and a member of a prominent family, was accused of the murder of her husband, Harvey Lillie, Oct. 24 last, by shooting him as he lay sleeping in his bed. Mrs. Lillie claimed her husband had been shot by a burglar, who had robbed the house of $300. Mr. Lillie died a few hours after the shooting. He was a popular business man, without known enemies, and his domestic affairs were supposed to be pleasant. It was testified at the trial that Mrs. Lillie was a steady patron of bucket shops and had lost much money. It was also shown that her husband's life insurance in her favor was $8,000. Application for a new trial will be made, and if overruled an appeal will be taken to the supreme court.

THE NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

Liquidation Results in Losses in Active Stocks and Day Closed Easy. Bear Tactics Effective.

New York, March 3.—Active liquidation set in in the stock market yesterday, resulting in price losses at one time of from 1 to 3 points for the principal active stocks. There were one or two abortive rallies on occasional profit-taking by bears, but they were not well held, and the lowest prices of the day were touched during the final hour. There was a very substantial rally then, reaching from 1 to 2 points for many market leaders, due to the general covering of shorts to take profits on the day's decline, but the market became unsettled again and closed easy.

The practical abandonment of the Aldrich financial bill affected sentiment even at the opening, but vigorous supporting orders were distributed in the market, and the decline was effectually checked. The vigorous upward movement in Manhattan helped to this end. At this point the effect of the money situation became concrete by the calling of loans to a large extent by the banks. This forced considerable liquidation and the bears made successful drives against the market to take it away from the sellers. The buying demand was so insignificant even on a scale down that the bear tactics were very effective and uncovered large stop loss orders. Money on call firm at 4 per cent; prime mercantile paper, 5 1/4%; sterling exchange steady.

Bonds were weak in sympathy with the stock market. Total sales, par value, $2,759,000.

United States bonds were all unchanged on the last call.

New Arms for National Guard.

Washington, March 4.—General Crozier, chief of ordnance, has made preliminary arrangements for arming the entire organized militia of the United States with the Krag-Jorgensen rifle of the regular service, in accordance with the provisions of the new militia law. He already has collected about 60,000 of these arms at the government arsenals. These arms will replace the Springfield muskets, which are to be returned to the government. According to the latest returns the organized strength of the militia is 115,749.

Epidemic More Serious.

Ithaca, N. Y., March 4.—Eight new cases of typhoid fever, three suspected cases and two deaths have been reported in the last 24 hours. The deaths were those of Ledia Bagley and Edward Besmer, citizens of Ithaca. The situation among the students of Cornell university is very good, there being no new cases yesterday. The general condition of the 65 patients in Cornell infirmary and its annexes is very satisfactory, none of the cases being considered critical.

"A MAGNIFICENT COUNTRY."

Prof. Lorenz Relates His Experiences in United States—Has Good Opinion of Our People.

Vienna, March 4.—Prof. Lorenz related his experiences in America before a distinguished gathering of society people and scientists Monday evening. He referred jestingly to the fact that he had been "banqueted to death" and to the "tyranny of the American toastmaster." The American woman, the professor said, undoubtedly was pre-eminent in intellect, education and art, "but she cannot cook and, according to President Roosevelt, will not marry."

Continuing, the professor remarked: "The president's fears, however, are probably exaggerated, as the American man is by no means the purely dollar-seeker he has so often been described. He is, above all, tender-hearted, often sentimental, charitable, public spirited, chivalrous to women and unapproachable in hospitality."

Prof. Lorenz summed up his impressions by saying that America was a "magnificent country, inhabited by a noble people."

Salvationists Bid General Farewell.

New York, March 4.—General William Booth's farewell to America was marked by the most enthusiastic rally that the Salvation Army has ever held here. It began with a celebration at Metropolitan opera house, and at midnight there was a torchlight procession through the streets, headed by the venerable Salvationist in a carriage. The gathering in the opera house was presided over by Justice Charles F. McLean, in the absence of Senator Hanna, who was unable to leave Washington. In responding to Justice McLean's farewell General Poth said that since coming here five months ago he had been enthusiastically received everywhere, and that he had found his daughter and son-in-law and the other officers, as well as the rank and file of the army, doing all in their power to advance the movement which he had started for the people. In bidding her father farewell Mrs. Booth-Tucker said that his coming to the United States had brought about good results and he had placed the standards on a higher ground and had directed the movement towards greater achievements.

Modesty of Railroad Company.

Vinita, I. T., March 4.—The Missouri, Kansas and Texas Railroad company has filed with the Dawes commission a claim to every alternate section of land, or parts thereof, designated by odd numbers, to the extent of 10 sections per mile on each side of its line of railroad through the Cherokee nation and within 20 miles from the line of its road. The claim is based upon the act of congress passed July 25, 1866, and involves 500 square miles of fine agricultural land. The Cherokee nation will insist upon the United States reimbursing the Indians in case the railroad should sustain its claim. Chief Buffington claims that the land in question was given to the Indians in 1835 by President Martin Van Buren. The Cherokees formerly owned Georgia, North and South Carolina, Alabama and West Virginia, in whole or in part. It is thought the government will ignore the claim.

Death Claims Veteran.

Indianapolis, March 4.—Major General Robert Sanford Foster died yesterday afternoon after a lingering illness. He was quartermaster general of Indiana at the time of his death. General Foster was one of the distinguished generals of the Civil War, having risen from the ranks. He was personally complimented by President Lincoln for bravery in action, being the only general in the war, it is claimed, who received this distinction. To his prompt action at Appomattox are credited many of the far-reaching results.

Crown Prince on Tour.

Milan, March 4.—Crown Prince Frederick William, of Germany, and his brother, Prince Eitel Frederick, passed through here yesterday on their way to Brindisi. They will make a tour through Egypt, Palestine and Greece and will go to Constantinople, where they will be received by the sultan. They will pay their respects to the king of Greece at Athens.

PLANS OF STEEL CORPORATION.

Improvements to Plants Will Cost Nearly Forty Million—Capacity Increased 2,700,000 Tons.

New York, March 4.—At a meeting of the board of directors of the United States Steel corporation yesterday the form of circulars to be sent to stockholders in connection with carrying into effect of the bond conversion plan was approved. They will be sent out during this week.

The plan provides for the issuance of $20,000,000 of 5 per cent bonds, $200,000,000 of which are to be exchanged for $200,000,000 of 7 per cent preferred stock. Judge Gary, chairman of the executive committee, gave out an official statement to the effect that plans which have been under consideration and preparation for over a year for harmonizing, extending and rounding out the various plants, will be pushed forward with all possible dispatch, the presidents of the various subsidiary companies who have been in session here this week having given their final approval of the plans, which provide for additions and improvements to plants to cost more than $36,000,000. It is estimated that when these expenditures are completed there will be added to the total capacity of the various subsidiary companies 2,700,000 tons of all products.

MORE RAILWAY SWITCHES

Are Given Encouragement By the Wellsville City Council — Ferry
Franchise Ordinance Passes First Reading.

Much important business was transacted by council last evening. Bills to the amount of $1,953.63 were ordered paid.

A petition was presented by W. E. Butler, of Highland avenue, asking for vacation of a twenty foot alley from Highland avenue to James street, as it acts as a watershed between his property and that of his neighbors.

As such an ordinance cannot be put into effect until after it has been advertised six weeks, a motion was passed that the petition be accepted and the clerk ordered to have the notice published.

Solicitor Boyd stated that Gen. Riley had complained about some land, located back of Coal street, between Fifth and Sixth streets, which the city had appropriated for laying sewers, without settling for it. Mr. Boyd stated that he could arrange a settlement for $200 and was authorized to do so.

The first reading was given an ordinance granting the Smith & McNicol Pottery company the right to lay a railroad track and use it for transportation of freight and passengers, on Sewer street or Lisbon street, thence southwardly on that street on the western side of Coal street from Pine alley to Sixth street.

A similar ordinance was given first reading, granting to C. V. Shoub the right to lay and operate a railroad on Coal street from Sixth to Seventh, to connect with the Smith & McNicol switch.

An ordinance granting Watson S. Johnston, of Congo, a license to operate a ferry across the Ohio river from the landing at Third street, Wellsville, to the opposite shore, for five years, passed first reading. Privilege is granted to operate a cable ferry flat until a steam or gasoline ferry can be constructed.

The city clerk was ordered to notify E. A. Freshwater to finish his paving contract, which was begun last fall, on Maple alley and Liverpool street.

The filling done in Mulberry alley has caused cellars on Front street between Fourth avenue and Fifth streets to be flooded. A petition was presented and Aughinbaugh, Herbert and Shoub appointed to investigate and act.

An ordinance to have an election for the issue of bonds amounting to $20,000 for the installation of a municipal light plant was defeated, after having been passed on two former readings.

board asking council to appropriate $20,000 for the establishment of a new water works plant was also defeated. The account due Rinehart Bros., of East Liverpool, for paving done on a number of streets in Wellsville, was so tangled up and caused such a wrangle that it was decided that the meeting adjourn and a special meeting be called on Friday evening, when the matter will be settled. Before then a committee from council, in company with Mr. Rinehart, is to go all over the work done and report.

Some Who Were Driven Off the Lowlands Intend to Remain Away.

As a result of the flood some of the people who moved away on account of the high water intend to stay permanently in their new location.

THE NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

Liquidation Results in Losses in Active Stocks and Day Closed Easy. Bear Tactics Effective.

New York, March 3.—Active liquidation set in in the stock market yesterday, resulting in price losses at one time of from 1 to 3 points for the principal active stocks. There were one or two abortive rallies on occasional profit-taking by bears, but they were not well held, and the lowest prices of the day were touched during the final hour. There was a very substantial rally then, reaching from 1 to 2 points for many market leaders, due to the general covering of shorts to take profits on the day's decline, but the market became unsettled again and closed easy.

The practical abandonment of the Aldrich financial bill affected sentiment even at the opening, but vigorous supporting orders were distributed in the market, and the decline was effectually checked. The vigorous upward movement in Manhattan helped to this end. At this point the effect of the money situation became concrete by the calling of loans to a large extent by the banks. This forced considerable liquidation and the bears made successful drives against the market to take it away from the sellers. The buying demand was so insignificant even on a scale down that the bear tactics were very effective and uncovered large stop loss orders. Money on call firm at 4 per cent; prime mercantile paper, 5 1/4; sterling exchange steady.

Bonds were weak in sympathy with the stock market. Total sales, par value, $2,750,000.

United States bonds were all unchanged on the last call.

New Arms for National Guard.

Washington, March 4.—General Crozier, chief of ordnance, has made preliminary arrangements for arming the entire organized militia of the United States with the Krag-Jorgensen rifle of the regular service, in accordance with the provisions of the new militia law. He already has collected about 60,000 of these arms at the government arsenals. These arms will replace the Springfield muskets, which are to be returned to the government. According to the latest returns the organized strength of the militia is 115,749.

Epidemic More Serious.

Ithaca, N. Y., March 4.—Eight new cases of typhoid fever, three suspected cases and two deaths have been reported in the last 24 hours. The deaths were those of Ledia Bagley and Edward Bosmer, citizens of Ithaca. The situation among the students of Cornell university is very good, there being no new cases yesterday. The general condition of the 65 patients in Cornell infirmary and its annex is very satisfactory, none of the cases being considered critical.

"A MAGNIFICENT COUNTRY."

Prof. Lorenz Relates His Experiences in United States—Has Good Opinion of Our People.

Vienna, March 4.—Prof. Lorenz related his experiences in America before a distinguished gathering of society people and scientists Monday evening. He referred jestingly to the fact that he had been "banqueted to death" and to the "tyranny of the American toastmaster." The American woman, the professor said, undoubtedly was pre-eminent in intellect, education and art, "but she cannot cook and, according to President Roosevelt, will not marry."

Continuing, the professor remarked: "The president's fears, however, are probably exaggerated, as the American man is by no means the purely dollar-seeker he has so often been described. He is, above all, tender-hearted, often sentimental, charitable, public spirited, chivalrous to women and unapproachable in hospitality."

Prof. Lorenz summed up his impressions by saying that America was a "magnificent country, inhabited by a noble people."

Salvationists Bid General Farewell.

New York, March 4.—General William Booth's farewell to America was marked by the most enthusiastic rally that the Salvation Army has ever held here. It began with a celebration at Metropolitan opera house, and at midnight there was a torchlight procession through the streets, headed by the venerable Salvationist in a carriage. The gathering in the opera house was presided over by Justice Charles F. McLean, in the absence of Senator Hanna, who was unable to leave Washington. In responding to Justice McLean's farewell General Booth said that since coming here five months ago he had been enthusiastically received everywhere, and that he had found his daughter and son-in-law and the other officers, as well as the rank and file of the army, doing all in their power to advance the movement which he had started for the people. In bidding her father farewell Mrs. Booth-Tucker said that his coming to the United States had brought about good results and he had placed the standards on a higher ground and had directed the movement towards greater achievements.

Modesty of Railroad Company.

Vinita, I. T., March 4.—The Missouri, Kansas and Texas Railroad company has filed with the Dawes commission a claim to every alternate section of land, or parts thereof, designated by odd numbers, to the extent of 10 sections per mile on each side of its line of railroad, through the Cherokee nation and within 20 miles from the line of its road. The claim is based upon the act of congress passed July 25, 1866, and involves 500 square miles of fine agricultural land. The Cherokee nation will insist upon the United States reimbursing the Indians in case the railroad should sustain its claim. Chief Buffington claims that the land in question was given to the Indians in 1835 by President Martin Van Buren. The Cherokees formerly owned Georgia, North and South Carolina, Alabama and West Virginia, in whole or in part. It is thought the government will ignore the claim.

Death Claims Veteran.

Indianapolis, March 4.—Major General Robert Sanford Foster died yesterday afternoon after a lingering illness. He was quartermaster general of Indiana at the time of his death. General Foster was one of the distinguished generals of the Civil War, having risen from the ranks. He was personally complimented by President Lincoln for bravery in action, being the only general in the war, it is claimed, who received this distinction. To his prompt action at Appomattox are credited many of the far-reaching results.

Crown Prince on Tour.

Milan, March 4.—Crown Prince Frederick William, of Germany, and his brother, Prince Eitel Frederick, passed through here yesterday on their way to Brindisi. They will make a tour through Egypt, Palestine and Greece and will go to Constantinople, where they will be received by the sultan. They will pay their respects to the king of Greece at Athens.

PLANS OF STEEL CORPORATION.

Improvements to Plants Will Cost Nearly Forty Million—Capacity Increased 2,700,000 Tons.

New York, March 4.—At a meeting of the board of directors of the United States Steel corporation yesterday the form of circulars to be sent to stockholders in connection with carrying into effect of the bond conversion plan was approved. They will be sent out during this week.

The plan provides for the issuance of $250,000,000 of 5 per cent bonds, $200,000,000 of which are to be exchanged for $200,000,000 of 7 per cent preferred stock. Judge Gary, chairman of the executive committee, gave out an official statement to the effect that plans which have been under consideration and preparation for over a year for harmonizing, extending and rounding out the various plants, will be pushed forward with all possible dispatch, the presidents of the various subsidiary companies who have been in session here this week having given their final approval of the plans, which provide for additions and improvements to plants to cost more than $36,000,000. It is estimated that when these expenditures are completed there will be added to the total capacity of the various subsidiary companies 2,700,000 tons of all products.

MORE RAILWAY SWITCHES

Are Given Encouragement By the Wellsville City Council—Ferry Franchise Ordinance Passes First Reading.

Much important business was transacted by council last evening. Bills to the amount of $1,953.63 were ordered paid.

A petition was presented by W. E. Butler, of Highland avenue, asking for vacation of a twenty foot alley from Highland avenue to James street, as it acts as a watershed between his property and that of his neighbors.

As such an ordinance cannot be put into effect until after it has been advertised six weeks, a motion was passed that the petition be accepted and the clerk ordered to have the notice published.

Solicitor Boyd stated that Gen. Riley had complained about some land, located back of Coal street, between Fifth and Sixth streets, which the city had appropriated for laying sewers, without settling for it. Mr. Boyd stated that he could arrange a settlement for $200 and was authorized to do so.

The first reading was given an ordinance granting the Smith & McNicol Pottery company the right to lay a railroad track and use it for transportation of freight and passengers, on Sewer street or Lisbon street, thence southwardly on that street on the western side of Coal street from Pine alley to Sixth street.

A similar ordinance was given first reading, granting to C. V. Shoub the right to lay and operate a railroad on Coal street from Sixth to Seventh, to connect with the Smith & McNicol switch.

An ordinance granting Watson S. Johnston, of Congo, a license to operate a ferry across the Ohio river from the landing at Third street, Wellsville, to the opposite shore, for five years, passed first reading. Privilege is granted to operate a cable ferry flat until a steam or gasoline ferry can be constructed.

The city clerk was ordered to notify E. A. Freshwater to finish his paving contract, which was begun last fall, on Maple alley and Liverpool street.

The filling done in Mulberry alley has caused cellars on Front street between Fourth avenue and Fifth streets to be flooded. A petition was presented and Auglinbaugh, Herbert and Shoub appointed to investigate and act.

An ordinance to have an election for the issue of bonds amounting to $20,000 for the installation of a municipal light plant was defeated, after having been passed on two former readings.

board asking council to appropriate $20,000 for the establishment of a new water works plant was also defeated. The account due Rinehart Bros., of East Liverpool, for paving done on a number of streets in Wellsville, was so tangled up and caused such a wrangle that it was decided that the meeting adjourn and a special meeting be called on Friday evening, when the matter will be settled. Before then a committee from council, in company with Mr. Rinehart, is to go all over the work done and report.

LEAVE FLOOD DISTRICT

Some Who Were Driven Off the Lowlands Intend to Remain Away.

The water has receded now sufficiently to permit those who were driven from their homes to move back and repair the damage done by the flood. The residents of Second and Coal streets are busily engaged in removing all evidences of the flood. They find no easy task.

As a result of the flood some of the people who moved away on account of the high water intend to stay permanently in their new location.

Water Trustees Meeting.

The Wellsville water works trustees held a short meeting last evening. Monthly statements were approved. W. G. Stewart appeared before council with a petition from the trustees asking council to appropriate $20,000 to the fund already on hand for the establishment of a new water works plant to be fitted up with all the very latest and best equipments on the market. The Dean pump was favored for the city's use.

BANQUET TO OUR AMBASSADOR.

Pilgrim Club Honors Completion of Fourth Year of the United States Representative.

London, March 4.—The Pilgrim club gave a banquet last night to United States Ambassador Choate to celebrate the completion of his fourth year as ambassador to the court of St. James. It was given in the Hyde Park hotel and was a highly elaborate function, over 150 guests being present. Earl Roberts, the chairman, in proposing the toast of "The President of the United States and King Edward VII," said that Mr. Roosevelt was the president of the most enterprising republic that the world had ever seen, and that King Edward was the sovereign of an empire on which the sun never sets. Their most earnest desire was that America and Great Britain should continue to prosper and flourish and that they might ever continue the same fast friends. The toast was drunk with enthusiasm, the orchestra playing "God Save the King" and "The Star Spangled Banner."

Earl Roberts, in proposing "The Guests of the Evening," dilated on the two nations' growing regard for each other during Mr. Choate's ambassadorship. Mr. Choate responded happily, congratulating the Pilgrim club on its marked and sudden success. Mr. Choate disclaimed for himself the credit of keeping alive the flame of friendship between the two countries. It was the outcome, he said, of the popular will on both sides. Mr. Choate said he was deeply touched when he heard that King Edward last week had voluntarily offered to send Queen Victoria's jubilee presents to the St. Louis exposition, and not only by the offer itself, but by the terms in which the offer was made.

Minister Nowell, in proposing the toast of "England and America," created a stir by frankly declaring that any better Anglo-American relations must be based upon interest and not on sympathy. In a characteristically American speech Mr. Nowell reduced the after dinner speaking to a practical basis. "In 1898," he said, "I noticed I was a citizen of the best hated nation on the earth. Misery loves company, perhaps that has something to do with the Anglo-American friendship of today. Nevertheless we find in you the man, and we like men. Whatever criticisms or reservations we may have regarding each other we are too big and you are too big to care for them."

Life Sentence for Murdering Husband.

David City, Neb., March 4.—The jury in the Lillie murder case yesterday afternoon brought in a verdict of guilty and fixed the punishment at imprisonment for life. Mrs. Lena M. Lillie, well-to-do, educated and a member of a prominent family, was accused of the murder of her husband, Harvey Lillie, Oct. 24 last, by shooting him as he lay sleeping in his bed. Mrs. Lillie claimed her husband had been shot by a burglar, who had robbed the house of $300. Mr. Lillie died a few hours after the shooting. He was a popular business man, without known enemies, and his domestic affairs were supposed to be pleasant. It was testified at the trial that Mrs. Lillie was a steady patron of bucket shops and had lost much money. It was also shown that her husband's life insurance in her favor was $8,000. Application for a new trial will be made, and if overruled an appeal will be taken to the supreme court.

The plan provides for the issuance of $250,000,000 of 5 per cent bonds, $200,000,000 of which are to be exchanged for $200,000,000 of 7 per cent preferred stock. Judge Gary, chairman of the executive committee, gave out an official statement to the effect that plans which have been under consideration and preparation for over a year for harmonizing, extending and rounding out the various plants, will be pushed forward with all possible dispatch, the presidents of the various subsidiary companies who have been in session here this week having given their final approval of the plans, which provide for additions and improvements to plants to cost more than $36,000,000. It is estimated that when these expenditures are completed there will be added to the total capacity of the various subsidiary companies 2,700,000 tons of all products.

Are a universal remedy for Pains in the Back (so frequent in the case of women). They give instantaneous relief. Wherever there is a pain apply a Plaster.

DIRECTIONS FOR USE

For pains in the region of the kidneys, or for a Weak Back, the plaster should be applied as shown above. Wherever there is pain apply Allcock's Plaster.

For Rheumatism or Pains in Shoulders, Elbows or Ankle-joints, or for Sprains, Stiffness, etc., and for Aching Feet, cut plaster second shape required and apply to part affected as shown above.

Rheumatism, Colds, Coughs Weak Chest, Weak Back Lumbago, Sciatica, &c., &c.

If you want the best results, the quickest and cleanest cure, use Allcock's Plasters. They are far superior to belladonna, which is the extract of deadly night shade, a virulent poison, and never should be used except by direction of a physician. Allcock's Plasters contain no poisons. They cure by absorption. Absolutely curative, perfectly harmless.

Read letter from Prof. Henry A. Mott, the eminent chemist.

* My investigation of Allcock's Porous Plaster shows it to contain valuable and essential ingredients not found in any other plaster, and I find it superior to and more efficient than any other plaster.

Philippine Tariff Measure Displaces It in Senate Yesterday.

DELAWARE HAS REPRESENTATION

Little State Gives Senate Full Membership for First Time in Four Years—House Has Repetition of Previous Day.

Washington, March 4.—The final defeat of the Aldrich financial bill was witnessed in the senate yesterday, when it was displaced by the Philippine tariff bill. Mr. Aldrich explained in detail his measure and said that a small number of men in the senate had deliberately, with malice aforethought, murdered it.

One of the features of the session was the fact that for the first time in two years Delaware was represented in the senate. J. Frank Allee and L. Helser Ball, elected for the long and short terms respectively, appeared in the senate and were sworn in by President Pro Tem. Frye. Besides the two years that Delaware had been totally unrepresented in the senate there were two years previous to that time when there was a vacancy in one of the seats. Mr. Ball's term of service will expire in two years, while Mr. Allee has four years to serve. The senate for the first time in four years has its full membership of 90.

In the course of the debate yesterday Mr. Elkins declared that the Republican party had been false to its solemn pledges in three successive platforms with respect to statehood for Arizona, Oklahoma and New Mexico, and he said it was the first time that party had been guilty of filibustering. He declared that upon the responsibility for the defeat of several important measures in the senate.

The senate at 6 o'clock took a recess until 8 o'clock.

Evening Session.

When the senate reconvened at 8 o'clock Mr. Patterson made the point of no quorum. After a wait of 10 minutes a quorum appeared. The bill providing for the appointment of three commissioners from Porto Rico was taken up and amended so as to require the commission to report to congress instead of to the president, and as amended the bill was passed.

Mr. Fairbanks then presented the conference report on the omnibus public building bill, which was agreed to. A joint resolution was agreed to, transferring all the authority and jurisdiction conferred on the secretary of the treasury by the immigration bill to the secretary of the department of commerce and labor.

Mr. Carmack then discussed the Philippine tariff bill. An amendment was agreed to excluding from the free list cigars and cigarettes.

The amendment increasing the duty on sugar and tobacco from 25 to 50 per cent of the Dingley rate was agreed to.

In the House.

Yesterday was almost a repetition of Monday in the house. Slowly but surely, through the operation of ceaseless roll-calls, the conference reports to complete the necessary legislation were ground out, and when the house at 7 o'clock last night recessed until 10 o'clock, only two conference reports on appropriation bills were still undisposed of—the general deficiency and the naval.

The Democratic opposition did not abate and will be continued until congress expires at noon today. During the debate on conference reports members on each side got in political speeches and several times party passion flared up. Just before the recess bedlam broke loose and there was an exchange of high words between two members on the floor. A personal altercation seemed imminent in the confusion, but was avoided by the intervention of friends. The actual business done during the eight hours of the day session consisted of the adoption of the conference reports on the immigration, public building and sundry civil bills, the reference of the president's veto message of a Virginia claim bill to the committee on war claims, the adoption of a resolution to correct clerical errors in the immigration bill and the passage of senate bill to authorize the treasury department to coin souvenir coins for the Thomas Jefferson memorial association.

When the house reconvened at 10 o'clock last night the hall presented a brilliant appearance. It was flooded with light from the stained glass ceilings overhead. The overhanging galleries were thronged and in those reserved for families of members, the executive and diplomatic corps, were many handsomely-gowned ladies, come to witness the closing scenes. On the floor many of the members were attired in evening dress. The knowledge that the conferees on both the appropriation bills still out had agreed was a source of general satisfaction.

The roll was called on the pending question, the adoption of the conference report on the senate bill to reduce the population required of "free service cities" from 50,000 to 25,000 inhabitants. The report was adopted.

Mr. Grosvenor then was recognized and moved the passage under the suspension of the rules of the "Veterans preference" bill.

He Enters Into a New Field of Business

(Copyright, 1902, by R. A. Hamm.)

In four days I don't have no peesness in my shop except to put on one cement patch for fourteen cents, and I have so blue ash never has when dot plumber comes over to see me. When I tells him how I vhas, he says:

"Der cobbling peesness vhas played out. Peoples vhas so rich and shoes vhas so cheap dot nobody vhasnts any repairs any more. You must go into something else. I haf got some ideas."

"How vhas it?"

"In der first place start a saloon. You may lose money on a coal mine or government bonds, but you can't lose money on a saloon. She vhas right on hand all der time, und der profits buys a farm in two years. In der next place start a museum. Enaferybody who owns a museum vhas a rich man. A museum interests old folks, pleases der children and aids der cause of education. If you make a museum and a saloon together, you vhas one of der biggest men in America in three months."

"ONE VHAS FOR BEER UND DER UDDER ONE FOR A MUSEUM."

"But how can I do it?" I says.

"I dunno, Hans, but you should think it over. I gif you hints, und you work 'em out. I vhas a poor man when a friend told me to go in der plumbing peesness and charge two tollar for stopping a leak in a water pipe, and now I own seven houses and haf ten children. You vhas my trendt, und I put you on to a good thing."

When dot plumber goes out, I sit down and talk mit myself. Der trouble mit me vhas dot notings vhas two times alike. One day a man cums in my place and drinks my beer und reads my gas meter, und dot fat policeman says I vhas swindles und should look out. Next day another man cums und acts shust der same, und I gif him der boot und vhas find twenty-five tollar. One time an expressman cums mit a package and collects life tollar, und when I open him he vhas a big stone. Dot fat policeman says I vhas a greenhorn und don't know somebody. Next day dot expressman cums mit a package und I fight mit him und haf to pay feefty tollar. One day der man who makes der taxes cums in my place and drinks four beers und says he makes my taxes lower. I go by der police, und he laughs at me und says I better go back to Sherman. Next day another man cums to drink my beer und see about taxes, und I run him out und vhas in troubles. If somebody vhas nobody, how you going to tell about it?

I speak to my wife all about der saloon und museum peesness, howefor, und I talk for an hour mit der druggist und coal man, und I shall see about her. Dot little tailor don't like to see me get ahead of him in peesness, but last night he comes around und talks to me und writes me out a piece for der papers as follows:

"Ladies und Shentlemen—I like to introduce myself in my new peesness. I haf opened some saloons for beer, but she vhas divided off in two pieces. One vhas for beer und der udder one for a museum. It vhas no sharge to go in or come out, und stay as long as you like. You can stay in or stay out—she vhas der same to me. Dot beer vhas for sale at der usual price, und she vhas ten X's, but if you don't vant she vhas shust der same. She vhas innocent for women und children, und no one vhas made better for seeing my place."

"I like to call your attention to my lulu. I don't know he vhas a lulu till der man who sells him to me gif me dot pointer. I belief all der time he vhas a stuffed cat mit glass eyes und a bobtail. Dot lulu vhas der Africa, und he vhas so fierce dot ef der elephants run avay from him. If a man should meet a lulu in an African forest at midnight, God help dot man! He would shust hear one awful scream, und den he would be in kindling wood, und dot lulu would drink his blood und scream 'Ha! ha! ha!' Nobody shall be afraid of my lulu because he vhas deadt und can't fight, und because I vhas at hand to protect der women und children. I like to say in conclusion dot nobody shall poke him mit a stick, und dot he vhas der only specimen ever brought to America. Some time dot policeman says I vhas a lulu myself, but he don't haf time to point himself."

"In dot next cage you find der hodag. I don't know some hodags until I buy him for feefteen tollar. I belief he vhas a stuffed fox, und I shmile at him."

Many women and doctors do not recognize the real symptoms of derangement of the female organs until too late.

"I had terrible pains along my spinal cord for two years and suffered dreadfully. I was given different medicines, wore plasters; none of these things helped me. Reading of the cures that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has brought about, I somehow felt that it was what I needed and bought a bottle to take. How glad I am that I did so; two bottles brought me immense relief, and after using three bottles more I felt new life and blood surging through my veins. It seemed as though there had been a regular house cleaning through my system, that all the sickness and poison had been taken out and new life given me instead. I have advised dozens of my friends to use Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to complete happiness, and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has secured this to me."

but der man proves dot he vhas right. Dot hodag vhas from Australia, vhas he goes roaming to eat enaferybody who. Vhile he vhas a small animal, he has a big appetite, und if he don't eat one man a day he vhas hungry. He don't fear nobody. If you meet him when you vhas walking out, you vhas gone oop der spout. He shumps on your back und flings you down, und for ten minutes he toys mit you und makes you belief he vhas all in fun. You pet him und call him fond names und belief you vill go home, but he shumps at you, und you vhas in heafen in two minutes. Nobody else has a museum mit a hodag in it. He vhas not to be had. Dis one vhas found deadt, und he vhas valued at ten thousand tollar. He don't hurt anybody unless you poke him in der eye mit an umbrella. In conclusion I vill say dot der more beer you drink in der saloon part der bigger dot hodag looks in der museum."

"It giffs me pleasure to speak of dot dodo in dot third cage. He vhas rare. You may go by ten museums, und you don't find him. My old woman said he vhas half turkey, but I pay twenty tollar for him und find out he vhas a dodo. I vhas not well posted about dot dodo, as der man who sells him to me has to go right away to Chicago, but I know he vhas a badt bird. He comes from Switzerland, und he flies about und looks for women und children. If he finds one outdoors, it vhas goodly! He screams two times und seizes dot victim und bears him off to his nest, und it vhas no good to follow after. Some day you may find some bones; dot vhas all. A full grown dodo, like the one you see before you, can eat one woman or two children eafery day, und such vhas der fear of him dot no Swiss woman goes out by her hopen midoudt a rope around der waist. You can see by his tail dot dis bird flies by night as well as by day. If a girl stands out by her gate at night waiting for her feller to come along, maybe dot feller finds her und maybe she vhas—whish!—gone oop der mountains to feed der dodo. She kicks und screams und cries for mercy, but it vhas no use. Two years later maybe her hatpin vhas found among der rocks, but no more. She vhas inside dot dodo, und der dodo can't be seen."

"My friends, I like you to come in und call on me und look aroundt. She vhas no free lunch, und she vhas no prize package, but she vhas a respectable place, und you vhas interested. If some innocent people call for beer, he shall haf it und be welcome, but if he shust like to see der museum nobody vill say a word. I vhas open eafery day und eaferying in der week except Sunday, und I vhas always glad to explain und be friendly. Please remember dot she vhas free to all, und dot my saloon vhas in two pieces—one for der saloon und one for der museum."

When we used to play at shinney, in the days of long ago, Now and then some blackened bruises on our shins we'd have to show. There was danger in the pastime, We were ready to admit, For where shinny sticks were whirling There was risk of getting hit.

Pat the old time sport of shinney was a very harmless game When compared with its successor, Which has "hockey" for its name. For the players in the latter Often drop all thoughts of fun And are swift in making bruises So that triumph may be won.

There's but little risk of damage To the hockey player's shins, For each fellow is protected On that portion of his pines. But when mixing in a scrimmage Where the little puck has sped Off a hockey stick is falling On some unprotected head.

Ort is played the trick of tripping When a rival tries to pass, And at times they are all tumbling On the ice in struggling mass. Some are subjects for the surgeons Ere the ending of the game, And quite lucky is the player Who is neither bruised nor lame.

Football hustlers look in wonder At the "rough house" on the ice; Hockey pugilists are saying They'd not play at any price. All admit that they're "not in it" As to scrimmages or fights When they once behold a mixup Of the doughy hockeyites. —Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph.

Heredity.

They were looking affectionately at their firstborn in his crib. "Isn't he a dear?" asked Mrs. Suburba softly. "But why do you suppose he insists on sleeping with his precious little hands stretched so far above his head, James?"

"That," replied Mr. Suburba thoughtfully, "is easily explained. He comes of a long line of street car strappers." But Mrs. Suburba refused to see the joke, because she always gets a seat.—Cincinnati Commercial Tribune.

How To Tell A Swindle.

If a man tells you he can make 25 per cent out of your money for you and don't tell you how, set it down as a swindle. If he offers you something for nothing, set it down as a swindle. If he tells you he can cure you of disease, and don't tell you how, set it down as a swindle. If you will exercise your own judgment, your own reason—just use a little common sense at all times, it is the safest guide. We tell you Life Plant cures Rheumatism, Eczema, Catarrh, Asthma, Scrofula and all blood diseases, and we tell you why. It does it because it purifies the blood, drives out the impurities and thus removes the cause of disease. There is no other blood in the Life Plant. Keep the blood pure, full of life, and the whole system will be renewed with new energy. Read this. It tells what Life Plant will do. It's from your neighbor:

Mr. J. C. Lukens, of Tippecanoe, Ohio, says: "I have been greatly relieved of Nervousness, Stomach and Kidney trouble by the use of Life Plant. As a family medicine to keep the blood in order and tone up the system and prevent sickness, I think it stands at the head of the list." Tippecanoe, March 1st, 1900.

Old Friends Who Used to Work With Him Glory in His Pluck And Will Stand By Him.

M. J. McGarry, who asks the Republican voters of Columbiana county for the nomination for prosecuting attorney, is known to every citizen of his own town as a self-made man. He worked at the bench from the time he was 11 years of age until he was a young man.

At the age of 18 he began to educate himself by working at the bench half time and going to school the other half. When he was far enough on with his preliminary education to choose a calling in life he selected the law, but his only resources to enable him to continue in his education was a strong will and his trade to support him. After 10 years' hard work and study his education was complete and he was admitted to the practice of the law.

Everybody who knows Mr. McGarry knows that he has made himself what he is, and his friends are numbered among the old benchmates and among the business men, and with the lawyers with whom he is now thrown continually. Mr. McGarry has no stronger supporters than the men who used to work with him, as they glory in his pluck. The fact that he was twice elected city solicitor of his own town speaks for his popularity at home. No better evidence of what kind of a man Mr. McGarry is can be given than that he has retained his old friends he made at the bench, and that he has won the esteem and friendship of the business men and citizens in general with whom he has come in contact. 53-h

Time's Changes.

Alas, how fast time flies!
What changes does it make!
Fair Mabel now denies
What once I'd boldly take.
Some fifteen years ago
When she was only four,
I'd like to have you know
I kissed her o'er and o'er.
Sometimes the kiss was true,
Sometimes she'd not comply,
But dimes would elude for me
This pleasing favor buy.
What makes time change us so?
I saw the maid tonight,
Yet she'd refuse, I know,
What once was her delight.
Now dollars would not buy
What dimes have often bought.
Indeed, she'd now deny
An insult in the thought.
Yet now I've older grown
And favors would elude,
Which I could not, I own,
Before appreciate.

The marriage was performed by Rev. David Jones, pastor of the M. P. church in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives of the couple. The couple was attended by George Rankin and Miss Alice Brooks, both of this city. After the ceremony was performed all repaired to the dining room, where an elegant wedding dinner was served. The couple leave on the evening train for a trip through the east and will be gone about ten days or two weeks.

EVENING SHADES.

White Very Smart—Novel Hair Decorations.

Ivory and oyster white are what is called safe wear, for they suit nearly every one, while for women who can wear colors the leading evening shades are pale rose pink, delicate green and a peculiarly charming tint of faint pearl gray.

Pale blue, a much softer and fainter tint than the once celebrated turquoise, is still in vogue, but is chiefly employed to provide an artistic touch of color on an ivory or black gown.

An entire gown of this tint could only be worn by a girl who had discovered that blue was emphatically her color.

A jet circlet of light and delicate workmanship is worn on the hair.

BALL GOWN OF BLACK ORIENTAL SATIN.

There are many new designs in hair ornaments, which include jeweled and gilded combs of light or dark tortoise shell or of the less expensive, but scarcely less effective, horn circlets similar to this of jet, but made of real or counterfeit diamonds or pearls or of deftly twisted gauze or ribbon.

The smart ball gown in the picture is of black oriental satin with a bertha of black chiffon.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

CLOTH CREATIONS.

Tailor Mades and Broadcloth Evening Gowns.

Embroideries are being revived by the tailors, some of them being very rich and beautiful.

Tailors are utilizing the plainest cloths, the hardest serges and the roughest tweeds in contrast to the elaborate cloths which were used for winter frocks.

Many novel evening gowns are made of pale blue mauve and biscuit cloth.

MORNING COSTUME.

Such a gown requires exquisite cut and should be finished with a soft draping of lace and a cheering touch of contrasting color. A cloth evening gown should not be attempted unless its manipulation is left in competent hands.

All white costumes continue to be the rage, and these are made elaborate, with countless beautiful embroideries. The cut shows a smart morning costume composed of a flannel waist and a tailor made skirt.

Easy for the Home Team.—The Mascots, of Freedom, and the Intermediate Y. M. C. A. basketball team played here last night, the locals winning by a score of 38 to 17.

Library Well Patronized.—Although February was a short month, the report of the librarian, Miss Baker, shows that the Carnegie library was better patronized than during January, the number of books issued having increased 449.

Boss Horseshoers to Organize.—The boss horseshoers of this city and vicinity will meet tonight at the shop of Waggle & Grosshans on West Market street for the purpose of effecting an organization. Organizer J. H. Ray, of Columbus, is here to assist them in getting organized. They will be affiliated with the American Federation of Labor.

Not the Headless Man.—John W. Moore, yardmaster for the Erie railroad at Akron, has written to Undertaker C. N. Miller, asking for a complete description of the body of the man found decapitated on the railroad track in the west end of the city several weeks ago. Mr. Moore's 18-year-old son has been missing from home since November 17 and the father thought the body might have been that of his son. The description of the missing boy does not tally with that of the railroad victim.

A MOTHER'S THANKS

To All Who Helped in Sending Home the Body of Frank T. Kelley.

Mrs. C. N. Miller received a letter this morning from Mrs. E. J. Kelley, of Monongahela, Pa., the mother of Frank T. Kelley, the man who was killed by a train in the west end of the city a few days ago. The letter reads:

"May God reward you, Mr. Dean, and everyone who helped in sending home the body of our son. This goes out from his mother's aching heart."

SELF-MADE MAN OF HIGH STANDING

WHY M. J. MCGARRY IS A STRONG CANDIDATE FOR PROSECUTING ATTORNEY.

Old Friends Who Used to Work With Him Glory in His Pluck And Will Stand By Him.

M. J. McGarry, who asks the Republican voters of Columbiana county for the nomination for prosecuting attorney, is known to every citizen of his own town as a self-made man. He worked at the bench from the time he was 11 years of age until he was a young man.

At the age of 18 he began to educate himself by working at the bench half time and going to school the other half. When he was far enough on with his preliminary education to choose a calling in life he selected the law, but his only resources to enable him to continue in his education was a strong will and his trade to support him. After 19 years' hard work and study his education was complete and he was admitted to the practice of the law.

Everybody who knows Mr. McGarry knows that he has made himself what he is, and his friends are numbered among the old benchmates and among the business men, and with the lawyers with whom he is now thrown continually. Mr. McGarry has no stronger supporters than the men who used to work with him, as they glory in his pluck. The fact that he was twice elected city solicitor of his own town speaks for his popularity at home. No better evidence of what kind of a man Mr. McGarry is can be given than that he has retained his old friends he made at the bench, and that he has won the esteem and friendship of the business men and citizens in general with whom he has come in contact. 53-h

Time's Changes.

Alas, how fast time flies! What changes does it make! Fair Mabel now denies I kissed her over and over. Some fifteen years ago, When she was only four, I'd like to have you know I kissed her over and over. Sometimes the kiss was free, Sometimes she'd not comply, But dimes would cheer for me This pleasing favor buy. What makes time change us so? I saw the maid tonight, Yet she'd refuse, I know, What once was her delight. Now dollars would not buy What dimes have often bought. Indeed, she'd now deny An insult in the thought. Yet now I've older grown And favors would elude, Which I could not, I own, Before appreciate. —Chicago Post.

EVENING SHADES.

White Very Smart—Novel Hair Decorations.

Ivory and oyster white are what is called safe wear, for they suit nearly every one, while for women who can wear colors the leading evening shades are pale rose pink, delicate green and a peculiarly charming tint of faint pearl gray.

Pale blue, a much softer and fainter tint than the once celebrated turquoise, is still in vogue, but is chiefly employed to provide an artistic touch of color on an ivory or black gown.

An entire gown of this tint could only be worn by a girl who had discovered that blue was emphatically her color.

A jet circlet of light and delicate workmanship is worn on the hair.

BALL GOWN OF BLACK ORIENTAL SATIN.

There are many new designs in hair ornaments, which include jeweled and gilded combs of light or dark tortoise shell or of the less expensive, but scarcely less effective, horn circlets similar to this of jet, but made of real or counterfeit diamonds or pearls or of deftly twisted gauze or ribbon.

The smart ball gown in the picture is of black oriental satin with a bertha of black chiffon.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

CLOTH CREATIONS.

Tailor Made and Broadcloth Evening Gowns.

Embroideries are being revived by the tailors, some of them being very rich and beautiful.

Tailors are utilizing the plainest cloths, the hardest serges and the roughest tweeds in contrast to the elaborate cloths which were used for winter frocks.

Many novel evening gowns are made of pale blue mauve and biscuit cloth.

MORNING COSTUME.

Such a gown requires exquisite cut and should be finished with a soft draping of lace and a chattering touch of contrasting color. A cloth evening gown should not be attempted unless its manipulation is left in competent hands.

All white costumes continue to be the rage, and these are made elaborate, with countless beautiful embroideries. The cut shows a smart morning costume composed of a flannel waist and a tailor made skirt.

ASSAULTED BY FOOTPADS AND A SHOULDER BROKEN

John Einsel, the Latest Victim of a Hold-Up, Narrowly Escaped With
His Life.

CLUBBED, ROBBED AND RENDERED HELPLESS

Without a word of warning or the slightest intimation of the impending danger, John Einsel, a resident of Avondale street, was, according to his own story told to a News Review reporter this morning, waylaid and robbed by desperate highwaymen at about 10 o'clock Monday night. Einsel is at his home with a broken shoulder, a badly injured arm and a bruised and lacerated face. When the reporter called at the home he found Mr. Einsel suffering excruciating pain from his injuries, and although the exertion of talking added to his discomfort, he willingly told the story of the affair:

"I was returning home after a visit down town," said he, "and reached a point near the alley that comes into Bradshaw avenue on the south side of the street, just around the corner from Walnut street. As near as I can judge it was very nearly 10 o'clock. I had almost reached the alley when I felt a stinging and violent blow across the shoulder that sent me to the ground and stunned me. I had not the slightest intimation of the attack and did not even see the man or men who struck me. I did not hear their footsteps as they approached. The blow of course was struck from the rear, else I could have seen the men. I don't know how the injuries to the lower part of the arm and to my face were sustained unless it was by falling. I was unconscious after the first blow and when I regained my senses I was lying under the shed on the south side of the street. The blows had sickened as well as stunned me, and it was some time before I could get to my feet. It was with the greatest of difficulty that I could walk and it was 11:30 when I reached my home.

"I had no idea of the real extent of my injuries and thinking that I would soon recover from them I thought it best to suffer through the night rather than call a physician. All day yesterday the pains continued, growing more intense rather than better. Last night I began to realize that I was more severely injured than I had at first thought and called a physician."

The physician was Dr. W. N. Bailey, and finding it necessary to administer an anaesthetic to properly set the fractured bones, he called in Dr. Hobbs to assist him. From the nature of the fractures it is evident that they were inflicted with a club or a similar weapon. They are of a very painful nature and will confine him to his home for several weeks.

When asked about the booty secured by the highwaymen Mr. Einsel stated that they did not get more than 65 cents. "I had some small change in a vest pocket," he said, "and it was gone when I reached home. There was $3.50 in a trousers pocket, but for some reason it was not taken."

The spot where Mr. Einsel states the holdup occurred is an ideal one for such a crime. There is a shed that fronts on Bradshaw avenue just before the alley is reached, used for storing casks of ware while they are awaiting shipment. This shed opens directly on the street and offers an excellent ambush in which an assassin or highwayman might lie in wait for his victim. The street is very dark at this point, although there is an electric light at the corner. The sidewalk is very narrow.

Frank Einsel, a son of the injured man, called at police headquarters yesterday afternoon and reported the affair to the authorities.

BEER CLASS THROWN AND MAN KNOCKED DOWN

Saloon Customer Badly Hurt as the Result of an Attack of
Some Enemy.

After indulging in drink until he could scarcely walk, J. R. Chapman, a collector for an installment company, wandered into a saloon on Walnut street yesterday afternoon, and while standing at the bar attempting to consume another glass of the intoxicating beverage, was made the victim of an accident that for a time seemed likely to result most seriously, if not fatally.

When he entered the bar room there were three men standing at the rear of the saloon, and to one of them Chapman is indebted for the injuries received. His face was fronting the bar, and having no idea that there was any one about who wished him personal harm, he was paying no heed to the loungers. This morning, when interviewed, he was loath to talk of the affair, but stated that one of the men without the least warning threw a glass with terrific force, striking the right side of his head and knocking him to the floor. The bartender rushed to his assistance and soon perceived that he had been severely cut, the glass having broken into many pieces and each piece lacerating the flesh. After the blood was washed and the injuries partially dressed he was removed to his boarding house. Mean time the trio made good their escape, and all efforts on the part of Officer Morris last evening to locate them proved futile.

Chapman asserts that he will make no endeavor to have the men arrested.

NEW MANAGER ACCEPTS POSITION

Plans of the Co-Operative Store Promoters Making Excellent Progress.

Henry Schreiber, who was selected as the manager of the co-operative store at the meeting of the directors held Monday evening, held a conference last evening with Messrs. John Reark, Samuel Steele and Richard Herbert, a special committee from the directors, at which he accepted the position. His duties will commence within the next few days as there is much to be done in the way of selecting and purchasing the stock of goods and getting the establishment in readiness for the public.

The directors will meet again at 6 o'clock this evening for the purpose of reaching a decision as to the store location. There are two locations in view, one on Sixth street and the other on East Market. The latter is the more favored, and it can be positively stated that it will be selected, the directors having so decided. The building is a new one at the intersection of Broadway, Lincoln avenue and the Calcutta road.

The new manager is one of the best known young men in the city and has had years of experience that will fit him for the responsible position. He is now employed at the Murphy grocery establishment on East Fifth street.

Will Discuss New Car Line.

The regular semi-monthly meeting of Trades and Labor council will be held tonight. It is not expected that a great amount of labor business will be brought up at this meeting, but it is understood that the proposition of C. A. Smith to build an electric line to the East End will be discussed at length. Several of the locals have already adopted resolutions heartily endorsing the proposed new road and it will be brought up at tonight's meeting of trades council.

EXECUTIVE BOARD IN SESSION HERE

N. B. OF O. P. OFFICIALS HOLDING
IMPORTANT CONFERENCE.

Trenton Dunted Ware And the Coming Convention Matters Under Consideration.

The executive board of the National Brotherhood of Operative Potters is in session here today. The eastern members of the board arrived in the city yesterday afternoon and a short session was held, an adjournment being taken until this morning.

The sessions are behind closed doors and from the members of the board nothing could be learned as to the transactions. It is stated that the dunted ware dispute of the eastern sanitary pressers is one of the most important matters up for consideration. The pressers and the manufacturers have so far failed to reach an agreement. The manufacturers have shown very little disposition to treat with their employees as to the dispute, and there has been strong talk of a strike. Such action on the part of the operatives must have the sanction of the executive board in order to secure the co-operation of the Brotherhood. There are several other matters that need attention before the convening of the annual convention at Wheeling next May.

The out-of-town members of the board are: Frank Hutchins, Trenton vice president of the N. B. of O. P.; Henry Halles, Wheeling; William Braithwaite, Trenton; Charles Fulton, Trenton, and National President A. S. Hughes, National Secretary Thomas J. Duffy, National Treasurer John T. Woods and William Adams, Sr., of this city.

HUSBAND DENIED WIFE'S ALLEGATIONS

Petition of Mrs. Henry E. Zehm, of
This City, for Divorce, Was
Not Granted.

Lisbon, March 4.—(Special).—In the case of Myrtle L. Zehm vs. Henry E. Zehm, both of East Liverpool, divorce was refused. The plaintiff said her husband had accused her of being unchaste and in doing so used vile and indecent language and threatened to kill her. Zehm went on the witness stand against his wife and denied her allegations. He said he had not threatened to kill her, but admitted raving charged her with unfaithfulness and having used profane language.

The court thought the evidence insufficient to warrant a divorce and the case was dismissed. W. K. Gaston represented the plaintiff and H. E. Grossman the defendant.

A BIG PURCHASE MADE BY THE NEW RAILWAY

Lisbon, March 4.—(Special).—General Asa W. Jones, John H. Ruhlman and J. R. Long, of the Youngstown & Southern Railroad company, are in Lisbon and have just closed options for 1,100 acres of coal land near West Point. This territory is owned by the Beaver company, of Lisbon, which was organized a couple of years ago and purchased the land with the expectation that it would virtually become valuable for its rich coal deposits. The tract is now being used for stock raising and other purposes.

State Mine Inspector E. C. Biddle, of Columbus, is also in the city and made an examination of the territory from a scientific standpoint yesterday as to its coal producing possibilities. It is understood that his report last evening was very favorable. The Youngstown & Southern company is closing leases all along the route as a preliminary to the construction of the electric line.

TOOK ONE DRINK AND GOT CRAZY

Man Who Gave Officer Mahoney a
Tussle Says His Whisky
Was Doped.

HE BECAME VERY VIOLENT

After He Had Recovered His Senses
He Told a Startling Tale of Having
Been Drugged by Strangers Who
Invited Him to Drink.

Crazed as the result of drinking a quantity of doped whisky, A. W. Mercer, a laborer employed by a local junk dealer, created a wild scene on Market street yesterday afternoon when Officer Mahoney placed him under arrest. The officer saw the man staggering down the street and immediately started for him, and when he attempted to escort him to the city jail the temporarily insane man madly clutched at the officer's legs and exerting himself to all the strength he possessed succeeded in hurling the "pride of the force" to the pavement. Pluckily Mahoney arose and made another attempt, but was again baffled and not until he had scuffled with his charge for another period did he land him behind the bars.

Confinement seemed to have a terrifying effect on the man and until late in the evening he ranted and tore around in the cell, presenting every sign of a raving maniac. During the night the effects of the drug left him and he assumed a condition of quietness, after which a reaction set in and he became violently sick and suffered with chills. Officers heard him crying for help and releasing him from the cell allowed him access to the corridors, which were heated sufficiently to revive him. When arraigned this morning he pleaded guilty to a charge of drunkenness, but avowed that it was not due to an over amount of whisky drunk.

He said that he had about $7 in his pockets and started out to have a little fun, and stopping in a saloon on Second street met a gang of fellows who soon put him out of business. He had only taken one drink over the bar when three men standing around invited him to take a drink from a bottle. He accepted the invitation and states that he remembers no more. He was unable to give a description of the men, his mind being a blank, but charges the trio with robbing him after the dope had "feet."

Mayor Davidson has had numerous men before him during the past few months who have avowed that they had been doped in various resorts, and it is probable that some steps will be taken by the police to run down the guilty parties.

THE RAPID GROWTH OF THE BROTHERHOOD

Shown By the Fact That the East Will
Have a Gain of 23 Convention Delegates.

Trenton, N. J., March 4.—(Special).—The various locals of the National Brotherhood of Operative Potters will elect delegates this week to the next convention of the organization, which will be held in Wheeling, W. Va., the first Monday in May.

The eastern locals will have 41 delegates, a gain of 23 over last year. This shows the great growth of the organization during the past 12 months. There are six additional locals, besides the old locals. The past two months have witnessed unusual growth and interest.

As yet there has been no move inaugurated by any of the locals to change the present rate of wages, although committees representing each branch are gathering statistics relating to prices and conditions for the next convention. Meantime, every effort is being put forth to strengthen the organization. All local unions have been called upon to lend their co-operation.

A local union of general ware pressers will be organized tonight by Vice President Hutchins. Sixty-one pressers are to pay their initiation fee.

McKinley Farm Sold.

Lisbon, March 4.—A deed has been recorded here whereby Mrs. Ida S. McKinley, of Canton, wife of the late President, transfers to Mrs. Emma Adams, widow of "Farmer Jack" Adams, the McKinley farm, near Minerva, for $10,000.

ELECTORS ARE PUZZLED TO KNOW WHAT TO DO AS REGARDS COUNCILMEN

Attorney General's Decision That the City Must Have But Seven Not Regarded as Final.

Notwithstanding that Attorney General Sheets has rendered a decision as to the number of councilmen that shall be elected by cities in the class of East Liverpool, the number being according to his opinion seven, including the president of council, those of the city interested in municipal affairs think that the problem is a most perplexing one, and as many differ with the attorney general as agree with him.

In last evening's issue of the News Review was published exclusively the latest decision handed down by Mr. Sheets. The account was carefully read throughout the city and the question was the paramount topic of conversation. As the result the candidates for election to the councilmanic body in April and the Republican leaders are much concerned as to what steps are to be taken in holding this election. Scores of cities in the class referred to having nominated eight councilmen, it is the general opinion that no change should be made in the number.

An opinion of the attorney general is generally considered official, but it is not incumbent on a municipality to take it as such. If a disputing city so desires it can appeal to the supreme court. A decision of the latter must be adhered to. Whether or not this court will be applied to has not yet been decided, but owing to the fact that the latest view of Mr. Sheets conflicts with others given out from his office, it is thought that there will be no alteration of the ticket.

Prominent attorneys and others were interviewed today and they, like the populace in general, are divided on the problem. Some have determined that the president of council is absolutely a distinct portion of the city's executive board, and that he, though elected at large is not included in the three referred to in the code. They further state that he is to be elected, irrespective of the other members of council.

Others contend that he must be elected by council and though he will serve as one of the executive heads in reality he will not be a member, only when there is a tie vote cast by council, at which time he will be vested with power to vote.

The Columbus representative of the News Review was instructed this morning to interview the attorney general, but was unable to find him. From Smith Bennett, special counsel in the attorney general's office, he obtained the following statement: "East Liverpool is entitled to seven councilmen, which does not include the president of council, who is an executive officer. Including the president, council will have eight members."

Others contend that he must be elected by council and though he will serve as one of the executive heads in reality he will not be a member, only when there is a tie vote cast by council, at which time he will be vested with power to vote.

WITH THE WORKMEN IN THE CLAY PLANTS

LYNCH IN CHICAGO.

W. C. Lynch, representing the Homer Laughlin China company, of East Liverpool, is at 642 Palmer House with a line of goods manufactured by this concern, says the Glass and Pottery World. Mr. Lynch will remain here until after March 1. He is now on his regular trip and will go as far west as Des Moines, Ia. The exhibit comprises a general line of dinner and toilet ware and in addition a very large line of novelties. Their Diana jardiniere in Royal Bonn and Persian effects, also the Sultan jardiniere in Majolica effects are especially attractive. Their new President jardiniere in Creton is also proving a good seller.

One of the tastiest things shown in Mr. Lynch's entire display is a line of catchalls and floor vases, also library cuspids in coin gold and ruby. Another new line is the show girls stein sets in Rookwood effects, the mugs of which are finished in the new hrom handle and Tiffany silversmith trimmings. They have also designed a new line of spittoons with gold lace border decorated in German china effects. It is needless to say that their King Charles dinner sets are meeting with approval, and, in the language of Mr. Lynch "is a dream." As stated above their entire line will remain on exhibit until after March 1 and will be one of the largest and most complete exhibits during the entire season.

NO. 12'S DELEGATES.

The meeting last evening of Jiggermen's local, No. 12, was, owing to the important business to be transacted, one of the best attended in many months. Delegates to the national convention, to be held at Wheeling next May, and to the Trades and Labor Council, were elected. The convention delegates are: Frank Gratton, Bert Allison, Charles Och, John Darrah and Thomas Leek. Delegates to the trades council are: John Reark, Timothy Hickey and Frank Gratton. Two new members were obligated.

HORTON'S INJURIES.

William Horton, of the glost kiln crew at the Thompson, who fell yesterday from the top of the kiln by the turning of the ladder upon which he was standing, is not so seriously injured as was at first supposed. He sustained a scalp wound, but fortunately there was no fracture of the skull. His hands are cut and he is badly bruised about the body. He is at his home on Sugar street and in a few days will be able to resume his work.

POPULAR SHAPES.

The new Pearl dinner shape of the Burford Bros. plant, placed on the market the first of the year, has proved to be an excellent seller and more orders for it are now on the books than the plant is capable of turning out. The new Defender toilet has also been very popular and is selling well. The plant all around is enjoying a prosperous season.

HAND INJURED.

Tom Goodwin, of the glost kiln crew at D. E. McNeel's, dropped a sagger on his right hand while at work yesterday morning, injuring it so badly that he was compelled to quit work.

A NEW CROWN.

The work of placing a new crown on glost kiln No. 10 at D. E. McNeel's was commenced and will be completed before the end of the week.

NEW LOCALS ORGANIZED

HORSESHOERS, IRON WORKERS AND ELECTRICAL WORKERS.

All Formed Since the First of the Year And Started With a Strong Membership.

East Liverpool has not been standing still in the matter of organized labor and several new locals, affiliated with the American Federation of Labor, have been organized since the first of the year. Nor has the work stopped. There are a number of trades represented in the city where organizations are badly needed and they will be looked after in their turn. The persons engaged in them have the spirit of unionism and will be glad to join any organization that will be recognized by the federation. Charles Kontner, the well known motorman employed on the Calcutta division of the East Liverpool railroad, is the local organizer of the American Federation of Labor and he is a constant and faithful worker in the cause.

Since the first of the year he has reported three new locals and charters have been issued to them. They are: International Association of Horseshoers, International Association of Amalgamated Sheet Iron Workers and the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers. These three locals started their existence with strong memberships considering the number of men employed in the trades in this city, and they have every promise for future usefulness. The men are taking a great interest and the meetings, which are held weekly, are well attended.

The sheet metal workers have elected the following officers: President, Lewis Capehart; vice president, J. Ira Chamberlain; recording and corresponding secretary, Frank Morgan; financial secretary, Thomas Haney; treasurer, Emmet Crites.

The electrical workers, one of the last of the three to be organized, have not as yet selected a full set of officers, but regular meetings are being held and the local is thriving.

The officers of the horseshoers are: President, John Garvey, Wellsville; corresponding and financial secretary, William Smith; recording secretary, E. A. Arnold; treasurer, M. S. Bowers; and sergeant-at-arms, E. A. Alexander.

FOUR YEARS IN PRISON FOR DR. H. N. TEETERS

Steuenville Physician's Sentence in Goodlin Case—Negro Sent Up for Life.

Steuenville, March 4.—Two persons received sentences in court yesterday. In the case of Andrew Anderson, the boy who was convicted of throwing the stone which killed old man Merritt, a question arose as to whether or not Anderson could be sent to the Mansfield reformatory, he being under 16 years of age, and he may be sent to the Boys' Industrial school at Lancaster. Sentence was deferred. Joseph Daniel Scott, who pleaded guilty to second degree murder, was sentenced to the penitentiary for life.

Dr. H. Negley Teeters pleaded guilty to performing a criminal operation upon Grace Goodlin, which caused her death. Dr. Teeters was sentenced to four years in the penitentiary. His wife, brother and sister were present. His attorney, P. P. Lewis, made a plea for clemency and Prosecutor Alban recited the facts brought out by the testimony, after which the prisoner received his sentence.

Deal in Philadelphia Gives Rise to Story That Consolidation is Planned.

Rumors of a consolidation in the two big base ball leagues again are going the rounds with the recent sale of the Philadelphia club as one of the foundations for the talk. It is announced in connection with this deal that the new owners do not secure the grounds and stands of the Philadelphia club, a fact which makes the question as to where the team will play rather dubious.

With this fact as a basis, it is surmised that there may be a consolidation of interests in the Quaker City by which the new owners come in equally on the American league property.

A consolidation of interests in Boston is another step that is to be taken in the east, followed by the abandoning of the project of the American league to enter New York.

This would give the eastern circuit five of the best cities in Boston, New York, Brooklyn, Philadelphia and Washington, with another city still to be added.

In the west consolidations at St. Louis and Chicago easily would solve the problem of bringing eight clubs down to six.

It is known that the St. Louis Americans would welcome a consolidation of interests with the Robisons, and on several occasions have expressed themselves in favor of such an arrangement. It is equally well known that the affairs of the St. Louis National league club recently have been investigated, with a view of ascertaining the exact value of the franchise and its accessories. Under these conditions it would not be a hard matter to close a deal of consolidation on extremely short notice.

FOOT BALL PLAYERS FROM THIS CITY

Two Will Be on Morgantown University Team—An Offer to A. W. Stevenson.

From present indications East Liverpool will be well represented at the University of West Virginia during the foot ball season next fall. Several young men of the city have determined to enter the university this fall and two of them are well known and popular young foot ball players, Will Hardy and Frank Moore, both members of last season's West End team. The latter played in most of the games with the East Liverpool club, and both are rated among the best in this section of the state.

The position of assistant coach of the university team, one that carries with it no little emolument in the way of honor, and a good salary has been proffered Alex W. Stevenson, the well-known player of this city, who played on the university team in '94 and '95. It is the custom of the team management to select as coach one of the best players from an eastern college and a university man as assistant. Manager Bowman in compliance with this custom has selected Mr. Stevenson, who has kept in close touch with the athletic affairs of the university since he left Morgantown. He has been called upon on several occasions to assist the boys at his alma mater in several of their hardest contests. He has not as yet either accepted or declined the offer.

Both Hardy and Moore stand an excellent chance for places on the foot ball team should they enter the university for their superiors in the game are very few.

A Massillon Girl's Constancy to a Fiance Accused of Theft.

Canton, March 4.—At the last session of the grand jury Melville Snyder, whose home is in Massillon, but who had been an employee of the Dueber works, was indicted for grand larceny, it being charged that he had been purloining gold and jewels from the shop from day to day.

Snyder confessed and restored a bar of gold and about 3,300 jewels. The gold was secured by taking filings and clippings, the greater part of the metal being secured from the settings of jewels. The gold was worth $107. The jewels were valued at but a few cents each without their settings.

For some time prior to his arrest Snyder had been the accepted sweetheart of Miss Grace Allman, a handsome and popular young woman. Her father is owner of the largest department store in Massillon.

The girl has been devoting herself to Snyder since his arrest. She is trying to secure his release and has made frequent trips to Canton. She makes no secret of the fact that she still intends to marry Snyder.

The case has been called for hearing in Canton. Every effort has been made to have the courts extend leniency. John C. Dueber has expressed his willingness to leave the court use its own judgment in disposing of the case. Miss Allman's sister was recently married to an Italian count.

Columbiana County, State of Ohio, ss.
I, Louis H. Brush, publisher of the Evening News Review, swear that the above statement is true.

LOUIS H. BRUSH.

Sworn to and subscribed to in my presence this 3d day of March, 1903.

J. S. HILBERT,

Notary Public.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 4, 1903.

A merchant of this city, whose attention was called to the sworn statement of circulation published in the News Review, has seen fit to intimate that he does not believe it is true. Caution is commendable, but unwarranted suspicion is foolish. If the gentleman will take the trouble to call at this office, it will be an easy matter for us to set his doubts at rest. The News Review is always glad to welcome its advertising patrons, and open its press room and subscription books to them. This paper is rather proud of its circulation, which averaged over 3,300 copies a day last month, and it has no office secrets to hide. Perhaps, if the suspicious natured and over-cautious gentleman will not believe the sworn statement of those whose standing in the business world is quite as good as his own he will believe the evidence of his own eyes. Let him come himself or send a committee and make the fullest investigation. The News Review will gladly afford him every facility, on any day or any number of days, for ascertaining exactly how many papers are printed in this office and what becomes of them. We have advertising space to sell, and we want our advertisers to assure themselves that they are getting exactly what they pay for. Not only has the News Review the largest circulation of any paper published in East Liverpool, but we honestly believe its circulation is greater by more than 1,000 copies daily than that of either of the other two dailies published in the city.

If you shave yourself satisfactorily now you could do it in half the time with a "New Gem" Safety Razor. If you do not shave yourself now you can save the price of a "New Gem" in a short time, do as good a job as any barber and save time. It is impossible to cut yourself with it. Shaves the heaviest or the lightest beard equally well. Blades of finest English steel and will be re-sharpened free.

Prices from $2.00 to $10.00 per outfit, according to number of blades and accessories. Call and see them.

and possibly larger than both combined. If this statement does injustice to our contemporaries, we will willingly acknowledge our error, if it shall be found that we are wrong after a committee of business men shall have investigated their circulation fully and attested the result of its findings. As we have repeatedly declared, the News Review courts the Can its contemporaries, who never give detailed circulation statements, either sworn or unsworn, say as much for themselves?

In American railway enterprise there is something to boast of and something to horrify. Hardly a day passes that a railroad "accident" is not recorded, with frightful loss of life. Certainly no day passes that several persons are not killed by trains somewhere in the country. Yet the statement, easy of verification, is put forward that upon the English railroads, the most crowded in the world, no person has been killed in the past 15 months. Contrast this record with the statistics furnished by the inter-state commerce commission showing that in three months ending September 30, 1902, 263 persons were killed and 2,163 injured in railroad disasters. The list would be much greater if it included tramps and trespassers and the numerous victims of the unguarded crossings. English conservatism is sometimes ridiculed, but there is a conservatism that is to be admired. It regards human life as sacred and not cheap, and takes every precaution to prevent needless sacrifice of it. Thousands fall victims every year to American recklessness. It is absurd to say that America has not the ability to make its railroads as safe as those of England. We have astonished the world by our achievements in railroading. It is not ability or ingenuity that we lack, but caution. Until that trait is developed in our people and legislation and public sentiment shaped in accordance, the ruthless and pitiful slaughter will continue.

Can nothing be done to make the streets of East Liverpool safe to those who travel them after night? The case reported today, in which an in-offensive man was struck down by a blow from behind and had his shoulder broken, is one of the most outrageous that has yet come to light. It shows plainly that whatever effort has been put forth to rid the city of vicious characters and of highwaymen almost murderously desperate has not succeeded. More effort—redoubled and continuous—is needed. The capture and conviction of even one of the footpads that are apparently now so numerous in this city would have a wholesome effect and serve as a useful warning to their brethren. It would also relieve the police from much of the blame, whether just or unjust, which is showered upon them. Police and public should co-operate to rid the town of a menace that is likely to develop into a standing disgrace. There is plenty of work ahead in this line for the incoming administration. If it can free the city from burglars, footpads and other characters for whom prison doors yawn, it can win golden opinions and lasting gratitude.

The United States Steel corporation is about to expend in and around Pittsburgh a large portion of its $36,000,000, set aside for improvements. The Iron City will need a few more trunk lines and an improved Ohio more than ever when that amount has been expended to expand its industries.

Again a code puzzle! Whether this city shall have seven or eight councilmen may not matter much, but the city would like to have a legally organized legislative body. The only obstacle to securing one appears to be to find out what the law is.

OBITUARY

Thomas J. V. Kennedy.

Lisbon, March 4.—(Special).—Thomas J. V. Kennedy died suddenly at his home on Washington street in this town yesterday. He was sitting in the house with his wife about noon and was apparently in his usual health, when she left the room for a moment and returning found him dead in his chair. The deceased had been a sufferer from heart trouble for many years. Mr. Kennedy was born in Pittsburgh November 24, 1836, and has been a resident of Lisbon since 1867. He was first married in 1868, to Mrs. Robert Kennedy, who was the widow of his cousin and a daughter of Mrs. Henry Hephner, of Lisbon. His wife died in 1870 and he was again married to Mrs. Mary Jane Abrams, who survives him.

He had no children. He was a member of the M. E. church, from which church funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock, the pastor, Rev. J. A. Ulman, officiating. Burial in Lisbon cemetery.

Wilmer O. Eells.

Wilmer O. Eells died at 11 o'clock this morning at the home of his uncle, Captain J. A. Myers, 131 Fifth street, after an illness of several weeks from catarrhal fever. The arrangements for the funeral have not been made, but the body will be taken to his home in Lisbon, where services will be held and the interment made. He was a son of Robert Eells, of Lisbon, and had been a resident of this city for a year, during which time he was employed at the Vodyre pottery as an invoice clerk. He was very popular with his associates and well liked by all who knew him. Besides the father, four sisters and one brother survive him. They are: Mrs. N. T. Nace, of Lisbon; Mrs. C. A. Jeffers, of Los Angeles, Cal.; and Emma, Lena and Bert, of Lisbon. Members of the family reached here this morning from Lisbon.

B. F. Brady.

The body of B. F. Brady is expected to arrive in Martin's Ferry this afternoon from California. Mr. Brady was one of the most prominent residents of Martin's Ferry and several months ago went to California for the benefit of his health. His residence there did not improve the condition of his health and last Tuesday he died. He was about 48 years of age and a cousin of Mrs. Mary Chambers, of the East End. The remains were shipped east as soon as arrangements could be completed and they will reach Martin's Ferry today. The funeral arrangements have not been completed, but it is expected that it will be held tomorrow afternoon. Several relatives from here will attend the funeral services.

JUBILEE CELEBRATED

Immense Crowds Gathered at Anniversary of Pope's Enthronement.

WHOLE WORLD IS REPRESENTED

Rain Does Not Dampen Enthusiasm of Populace—St. Peter's Crowded With Sixty-Five Thousand Pilgrims. Scene a Brilliant One.

Rome, March 4.—The twenty-fifth anniversary of the enthronement of Pope Leo was celebrated yesterday in a torrential downpour of rain. Sixty-five thousand pilgrims and other visitors found standing room inside St. Peter's, while the tribunes were filled with one of the most notable crowds Rome has seen in many years. The interior of the cathedral presented a richly brilliant spectacle. The state procession entered from the vatican in the usual order, silver trumpets pealing a salute to them. There was in the procession the largest number of cardinals seen at one time in a quarter of a century.

As the pope, borne aloft, was brought in, his white robes swaying amid the waving of peacock fans, the crowd burst forth in a deafening shout.

The service consisted of a high pontifical mass and a Te Deum. Forty cardinals and 315 bishops, representing the whole world, were present at the celebration. His holiness looked better than he has for a fortnight past, though his face was pale and his voice hoarse.

Though the pope showed few signs of fatigue during the public ceremony, when he regained his apartment he was rather alarmingly prostrated.

Dr. Lapponi, his holiness' physician, feared his patient might lose consciousness, and accordingly insisted that he should go to bed at once. As he was being assisted, the pope said: "Such ceremonies are uplifting, but I am glad they are not daily occurrences."

Celebration in New York.

New York, March 4.—The completion of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the reign of Pope Leo XIII was observed at St. Patrick's cathedral yesterday with a solemn pontifical mass of thanksgiving, celebrated by Archbishop Falconio, apostolic delegate to the United States. Mgr. Falconio was assisted by Mgr. Mooney, vicar general, and other priests, while Archbishop Farley, Archbishop-elect Quigley, of Chicago, six bishops and other church dignitaries were grouped at either side of the altar. The musical portion consisted of Haydn's imperial mass, sung in its entirety by the choir, accompanied by orchestra and organ. The Rev. Thomas J. Campbell, the famous Jesuit orator, delivered the sermon, a eulogy of Pope Leo XIII.

Ohio Postmasters.

Washington, March 4.—The following postmasters for Ohio were appointed yesterday: E. J. Lewis, Girard; G. B. Alaback, East Palestine; M. L. Thompson, Georgetown; R. B. Day, Bluffton; J. E. Hall, Bucyrus; W. A. Pittenger, Dennison; A. M. Richards, Hicksville; J. W. Hull, Millersburg; J. C. Holloway, Montpelier; F. F. Talley, New Richmond; J. J. Roberts, Prospect; H. M. Don't fool with a cold, no one can tell what the end may be. Pneumonia, catarrh, chronic bronchitis and consumption invariably result from neglected colds. Snow-Bound Passengers Fared Badly.

St. Johns, N. F., March 4.—The passengers of the two express trains which were snow bound in the interior are now reaching the city and relate thrilling stories of their experiences. During their detention in the snow drifts they were reduced to two meals daily, consisting of cake, hard biscuit and a mug of tea. Sometimes they had only one meal. They had no meat for over a week and were reduced to very short commons when the relief reached them. Four women on one of the trains suffered extremely, one being stricken with fainting fits from exhaustion. The second-class passengers had no sleeping accommodation during the whole period they were blocked in the snow.

Relief Department Legal.

Columbus, O., March 4.—The supreme court of Ohio yesterday upheld the validity of the Pennsylvania voluntary relief department. Suit was brought in the circuit court of Franklin county by the attorney general to oust the Pittsburg, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis Railway company from its charter on the ground that in conducting its relief department it was doing an insurance business, in contravention of the state laws. It was also claimed that the railroad company compelled its employees to become members of the relief association.

Summoned by Strike Commission.

Scranton, Pa., March 4.—Representatives of the operators and miners have been summoned by the mine strike commission for a conference in Washington, to take place tomorrow at 10 o'clock. All the local lawyers who appeared before the commission and District President Nichols, of the United Mine Workers, will leave today for Washington. The summons from the commission simply states that they want to confer about the question of weighing coal.

NO!

10 pieces of copyright music, latest popular pieces of the day, for $1.00.

Why, you ask, do we make this offer, do we buy this music so cheap that we can afford to sell it 10 pieces for $1.00.

NO!

The reason, in order to keep up to date we have standing orders with the leading publishers for from 1 to 10 copies of each new issue. These are sent us soon as they are off the press. In 10 years we have accumulated more music than our limited space will allow, our shelves are running over. We must make more room or reduce our stock. We decide to sell 10 pieces for $1.00, or sent prepaid to any address for $1.10.

This music we have in stock and will not include the last copy of any one piece. Our clerks will not be allowed to play over music in this offer. We will, however, allow you to select three pieces that we have in stock, we will give you seven more either instrumental or vocal of our own selection, copyright music. Ordinarily these 10 pieces would cost you at least $2.50.

While this offer is not something for nothing it is very close to it. Offer for 30 days only.

MORE RAILWAY SWITCHES

Are Given Encouragement By the Wellsville City Council — Ferry Franchise Ordinance Passes First Reading.

Much important business was transacted by council last evening. Bills to the amount of $1,953.63 were ordered paid.

A petition was presented by W. E. Butler, of Highland avenue, asking for vacation of a twenty foot alley from Highland avenue to James street, as it acts as a watershed between his property and that of his neighbors.

As such an ordinance cannot be put into effect until after it has been advertised six weeks, a motion was passed that the petition be accepted and the clerk ordered to have the notice published.

Solicitor Boyd stated that Gen. Riley had complained about some land, located back of Coal street, between Fifth and Sixth streets, which the city had appropriated for laying sewers, without settling for it. Mr. Boyd stated that he could arrange a settlement for $200 and was authorized to do so.

The first reading was given an ordinance granting the Smith & McNicol Pottery company the right to lay a railroad track and use it for transportation of freight and passengers, on Sewer street or Lisbon street, thence southwardly on that street on the western side of Coal street from Pine alley to Sixth street.

A similar ordinance was given first reading, granting to C. V. Shoub the right to lay and operate a railroad on Coal street from Sixth to Seventh, to connect with the Smith & McNicol switch.

An ordinance granting Watson S. Johnston, of Congo, a license to operate a ferry across the Ohio river from the landing at Third street, Wellsville, to the opposite shore, for five years, passed first reading. Privilege is granted to operate a cable ferry flat until a steam or gasoline ferry can be constructed.

The city clerk was ordered to notify E. A. Freshwater to finish his paving contract, which was begun last fall, on Maple alley and Liverpool street.

The filling done in Mulberry alley has caused cellars on Front street between Fourth avenue and Fifth streets to be flooded. A petition was presented and Aughinbaugh, Herbert and Shoub appointed to investigate and act.

An ordinance to have an election for the issue of bonds amounting to $20,000 for the installation of a municipal light plant was defeated, after having been passed on two former readings.

board asking council to appropriate $20,000 for the establishment of a new water works plant was also defeated. The account due Rinehart Bros., of East Liverpool, for paving done on a number of streets in Wellsville, was so tangled up and caused such a wrangle that it was decided that the meeting adjourn and a special meeting be called on Friday evening, when the matter will be settled. Before then a committee from council, in company with Mr. Rinehart, is to go all over the work done and report.

LEAVE FLOOD DISTRICT

Some Who Were Driven Off the Lowlands Intend to Remain Away.

The water has receded now sufficiently to permit those who were driven from their homes to move back and repair the damage done by the flood. The residents of Second and Coal streets are busily engaged in removing all evidences of the flood. They find no easy task.

As a result of the flood some of the people who moved away on account of the high water intend to stay permanently in their new location.

Water Trustees Meeting.

The Wellsville water works trustees held a short meeting last evening. Monthly statements were approved. W. G. Stewart appeared before council with a petition from the trustees asking council to appropriate $20,000 to the fund already on hand for the establishment of a new water works plant to be fitted up with all the very latest and best equipments on the market. The Dean pump was favored for the city's use.

BANQUET TO OUR AMBASSADOR.

Pilgrim Club Honors Completion of Fourth Year of the United States Representative.

London, March 4.—The Pilgrim club gave a banquet last night to United States Ambassador Choate to celebrate the completion of his fourth year as ambassador to the court of St. James. It was given in the Hyde Park hotel and was a highly elaborate function, over 150 guests being present. Earl Roberts, the chairman, in proposing the toast of "The President of the United States and King Edward VII," said that Mr. Roosevelt was the president of the most enterprising republic that the world had ever seen, and that King Edward was the sovereign of an empire on which the sun never sets. Their most earnest desire was that America and Great Britain should continue to prosper and flourish and that they might ever continue the same fast friends. The toast was drunk with enthusiasm, the orchestra playing "God Save the King" and "The Star Spangled Banner."

Earl Roberts, in proposing "The Guests of the Evening," dilated on the two nations' growing regard for each other during Mr. Choate's ambassadorship. Mr. Choate responded happily, congratulating the Pilgrim club on its marked and sudden success. Mr. Choate disclaimed for himself the credit of keeping alive the flame of friendship between the two countries. It was the outcome, he said, of the popular will on both sides. Mr. Choate said he was deeply touched when he heard that King Edward last week had voluntarily offered to send Queen Victoria's jubilee presents to the St. Louis exposition, and not only by the offer itself, but by the terms in which the offer was made.

Minister Newell, in proposing the toast of "England and America," created a stir by frankly declaring that any better Anglo-American relations must be based upon interest and not on sympathy. In a characteristically American speech Mr. Newell reduced the after dinner speaking to a practical basis. "In 1898," he said, "I noticed I was a citizen of the best hated nation on the earth. Misery loves company, perhaps that has something to do with the Anglo-American friendship of today. Nevertheless we find in you the man, and we like men. Whatever criticisms or reservations we may have regarding each other we are too big and you are too big to care for them."

Life Sentence for Murdering Husband. David City, Neb., March 4.—The jury in the Lillie murder case yesterday afternoon brought in a verdict of guilty and fixed the punishment at imprisonment for life. Mrs. Lena M. Lillie, well-to-do, educated and a member of a prominent family, was accused of the murder of her husband, Harvey Lillie, Oct. 24 last, by shooting him as he lay sleeping in his bed. Mrs. Lillie claimed her husband had been shot by a burglar, who had robbed the house of $300. Mr. Lillie died a few hours after the shooting. He was a popular business man, without known enemies, and his domestic affairs were supposed to be pleasant. It was testified at the trial that Mrs. Lillie was a steady patron of bucket shops and had lost much money. It was also shown that her husband's life insurance in her favor was $8,000. Application for a new trial will be made, and if overruled an appeal will be taken to the supreme court.

THE NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

New York, March 3.—Active liquidation set in in the stock market yesterday, resulting in price losses at one time of from 1 to 3 points for the principal active stocks. There were one or two abortive rallies on occasional profit-taking by bears, but they were not well held, and the lowest prices of the day were touched during the final hour. There was a very substantial rally then, reaching from 1 to 2 points for many market leaders, due to the general covering of shorts to take profits on the day's decline, but the market became unsettled again and closed easy.

The practical abandonment of the Aldrich financial bill affected sentiment even at the opening, but vigorous supporting orders were distributed in the market, and the decline was effectually checked. The vigorous upward movement in Manhattan helped to this end. At this point the effect of the money situation became concrete by the calling of loans to a large extent by the banks. This forced considerable liquidation and the bears made successful drives against the market to take it away from the sellers. The buying demand was so insignificant even on a scale down that the bear tactics were very effective and uncovered large stop loss orders. Money on call firm at 4 per cent; prime mercantile paper, 5 1/2 to 6 1/4; sterling exchange steady.

Bonds were weak in sympathy with the stock market. Total sales, par value, $2,750,000.

United States bonds were all unchanged on the last call.

New Arms for National Guard.

Washington, March 4.—General Crozier, chief of ordnance, has made preliminary arrangements for arming the entire organized militia of the United States with the Krag-Jorgensen rifle of the regular service, in accordance with the provisions of the new militia law. He already has collected about 60,000 of these arms at the government arsenals. These arms will replace the Springfield muskets, which are to be returned to the government. According to the latest returns the organized strength of the militia is 115,719.

"A MAGNIFICENT COUNTRY."

Prof. Lorenz Relates His Experiences in United States—Has Good Opinion of Our People.

Vienna, March 4.—Prof. Lorenz related his experiences in America before a distinguished gathering of society people and scientists Monday evening. He referred jestingly to the fact that he had been "banqueted to death" and to the "tyranny of the American toastmaster." The American woman, the professor said, undoubtedly was pre-eminent in intellect, education and art, "but she cannot cook and, according to President Roosevelt, will not marry."

Continuing, the professor remarked: "The president's fears, however, are probably exaggerated, as the American man is by no means the purely dollar-seeker he has so often been described. He is, above all, tender-hearted, often sentimental, charitable, public spirited, chivalrous to women and unapproachable in hospitality."

Salvationists Bid General Farewell.

New York, March 4.—General William Booth's farewell to America was marked by the most enthusiastic rally that the Salvation Army has ever held here. It began with a celebration at Metropolitan opera house, and at midnight there was a torchlight procession through the streets, headed by the venerable Salvationist in a carriage. The gathering in the opera house was presided over by Justice Charles F. McLean, in the absence of Senator Hanna, who was unable to leave Washington. In responding to Justice McLean's farewell General Poth said that since coming here five months ago he had been enthusiastically received everywhere, and that he had found his daughter and son-in-law and the other officers, as well as the rank and file of the army, doing all in their power to advance the movement which he had started for the people. In bidding his father farewell Mrs. Booth-Tucker said that his coming to the United States had brought about good results and he had placed the standards on a higher ground and had directed the movement towards greater achievements.

Modesty of Railroad Company.

Vinita, I. T., March 4.—The Missouri, Kansas and Texas Railroad company has filed with the Dawes commission a claim to every alternate section of land, or parts thereof, designated by odd numbers, to the extent of 10 sections per mile on each side of its line of railroad through the Cherokee nation and within 20 miles from the line of its road. The claim is based upon the act of congress passed July 25, 1866, and involves 500 square miles of fine agricultural land. The Cherokee nation will insist upon the United States reimbursing the Indians in case the railroad should sustain its claim. Chief Buffington claims that the land in question was given to the Indians in 1835 by President Martin Van Buren. The Cherokees formerly owned Georgia, North and South Carolina, Alabama and West Virginia, in whole or in part. It is thought the government will ignore the claim.

Death Claims Veteran.

Indianapolis, March 4.—Major General Robert Sanford Foster died yesterday afternoon after a lingering illness. He was quartermaster general of Indiana at the time of his death. General Foster was one of the distinguished generals of the Civil War, having risen from the ranks. He was personally complimented by President Lincoln for bravery in action, being the only general in the war, it is claimed, who received this distinction. To his prompt action at Appomattox are credited many of the far-reaching results.

Crown Prince on Tour.

Milan, March 4.—Crown Prince Frederick William, of Germany, and his brother, Prince Eitel Frederick, passed through here yesterday on their way to Brindisi. They will make a tour through Egypt, Palestine and Greece and will go to Constantinople, where they will be received by the sultan. They will pay their respects to the king of Greece at Athens.

The D of L will give a dance at Rock Springs park Thursday, March 5th. Admission, 50 cents a couple. Extra lady, 25c. McGraw's orchestra.

PLANS OF STEEL CORPORATION.

Improvements to Plants Will Cost Nearly Forty Million—Capacity Increased 2,700,000 Tons.

New York, March 4.—At a meeting of the board of directors of the United States Steel corporation yesterday the form of circulars to be sent to stockholders in connection with carrying into effect of the bond conversion plan was approved. They will be sent out during this week.

The plan provides for the issuance of $250,000,000 of 5 per cent bonds, $200,000,000 of which are to be exchanged for $200,000,000 of 7 per cent preferred stock. Judge Gary, chairman of the executive committee, gave out an official statement to the effect that plans which have been under consideration and preparation for over a year for harmonizing, extending and rounding out the various plants, will be pushed forward with all possible dispatch, the presidents of the various subsidiary companies who have been in session here this week having given their final approval of the plans, which provide for additions and improvements to plants to cost more than $36,000,000. It is estimated that when these expenditures are completed there will be added to the total capacity of the various subsidiary companies 2,700,000 tons of all products.

SELF-MADE MAN OF HIGH STANDING

WHY M. J. McGARRY IS A STRONG CANDIDATE FOR PROSECUTING ATTORNEY.

Old Friends Who Used to Work With Him Glory in His Pluck And Will Stand By Him.

M. J. McGarry, who asks the Republican voters of Columbiana county for the nomination for prosecuting attorney, is known to every citizen of his own town as a self-made man. He worked at the bench from the time he was 11 years of age until he was a young man.

At the age of 18 he began to educate himself by working at the bench half time and going to school the other half. When he was far enough on with his preliminary education to choose a calling in life he selected the law, but his only resources to enable him to continue in his education was a strong will and his trade to support him. After 10 years' hard work and study his education was complete and he was admitted to the practice of the law.

Everybody who knows Mr. McGarry knows that he has made himself what he is, and his friends are numbered among the old benchmates and among the business men, and with the lawyers with whom he is now thrown continually. Mr. McGarry has no stronger supporters than the men who used to work with him, as they glory in his pluck. The fact that he was twice elected city solicitor of his own town speaks for his popularity at home. No better evidence of what kind of a man Mr. McGarry is can be given than that he has retained his old friends he made at the bench, and that he has won the esteem and friendship of the business men and citizens in general with whom he has come in contact. 53-h

Time's Changes.

Alas, how fast time flies! What changes does it make! Fair Mabel now denies What once I'd boldly take.

Some fifteen years ago, When she was only four, I'd like to have you know I kissed her o'er and o'er.

Sometimes the kiss was free, Sometimes she'd not comply, But dimes would e'er for me This pleasing favor buy.

What makes time change us so? I saw the maid tonight, Yet she'd refuse, I know, What once was her delight.

Now dollars would not buy What dimes have often bought, Indeed, she'd now deny An insult in the thought.

Yet now I've older grown And favors would elude, Which I could not, I own, Before appreciate.

EVENING SHADES.

White Very Smart—Novel Hair Decorations.

Ivory and oyster white are what is called safe wear, for they suit nearly every one, while for women who can wear colors the leading evening shades are pale rose pink, delicate green and a peculiarly charming tint of faint pearl gray.

Pale blue, a much softer and fainter tint than the once celebrated turquoise, is still in vogue, but is chiefly employed to provide an artistic touch of color on an ivory or black gown.

An entire gown of this tint could only be worn by a girl who had discovered that blue was emphatically her color.

A jet circlet of light and delicate workmanship is worn on the hair.

BALL GOWN OF BLACK ORIENTAL SATIN.

There are many new designs in hair ornaments, which include jeweled and gilded combs of light or dark tortoise shell or of the less expensive, but scarcely less effective, horn circlets similar to this of jet, but made of real or counterfeit diamonds or pearls or of deftly twisted gauze or ribbon.

The smart ball gown in the picture is of black oriental satin with a bertha of black chiffon.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

CLOTH CREATIONS.

Tailor Mades and Broadcloth Evening Gowns.

Embroideries are being revived by the tailors, some of them being very rich and beautiful.

Tailors are utilizing the plainest cloths, the hardest serges and the roughest tweeds in contrast to the elaborate cloths which were used for winter frocks.

Many novel evening gowns are made of pale blue mauve and biscuit cloth.

MORNING COSTUME.

Such a gown requires exquisite cut and should be finished with a soft draping of lace and a cheering touch of contrasting color. A cloth evening gown should not be attempted unless its manipulation is left in competent hands.

All white costumes continue to be the rage, and these are made elaborate, with countless beautiful embroideries. The cut shows a smart morning costume composed of a flannel waist and a tailor made skirt.
